Petersbourg, September 22.

THE Four Regiments of Foot which have encamped this Summer near this City, broke up the 16th Instant and returned to their Quarters. The same Day, the Festival of the Princess Elizabeth's Name-Day, was celebrated at the Palace. M. de Westphalen, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark, had on the 18th a publick Audience of the Czarina, in which he declared to her, in the Name of the King his Master, that his Danish Majesty acknowledged her in Quality of Empress. Her Czarish Majesty was placed under a most magnificent Canopy, being attended by the principal Officers of the Court, the Generals, and other Persons of Distinction of both Sexes. The Knees Tscherbarrou, lately returned from Constantinople, where he had resided in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from the Czarina, had some Days ago the Honour to kiss her Majesty's Hand, and made a Report to her Majesty of the Success of his Negotiation, and delivered to her at the same time his Recredential Letters. The Talk of the Marriage of the young Princess of Mecklenbourg is again revived, but the Prince who is designed for her is not yet named. Her Czarish Majesty intends in a little time to make a great Promotion among the General Officers. The Prince of Hesse Hombourg is upon his Departure to go and take upon him the Command of the Troops in Persia, which her Majesty has conferred upon him.

Stockholm, Sept. 30. The King returned Yesterday from Ulrichsal with Prince William of Hesse his Brother, who had put off his Departure in order to accompany his Majesty at a great Party of Hunting. His Highness will set out towards the End of this Week, his Domesticks being already gone.

Vienna, Oct. 4. The first Instant the Anniversary of the Emperour's Birth-Day was celebrated here with the usual Ceremonies. We have Advices from Lintz, that their Imperial Majesties were returned thither from a little Journey they had made towards Ens, and that their Majesties intended to set out from that Place
