Yesterday being the Dutchess of Mecklenburg's Name-Day, all the Foreign Ministers and Persons of Distinction went in the Morning to compliment her Czarian Majesty, and her Highness on that Occasion. That Dutchess continues to be in a very indifferent State of Health. Advices from Moscow say, that 24 tall Men are arrived at that Place from the Ukraine, and are soon expected here. Her Majesty designs to send them as a Present to the King of Prussia, to serve in his Regiments of Great Grenadiers. Count Wratiflaw, the Emperour's Minister, being now laid up with the Gout, it is very uncertain when he will be able to set out for Vienna. M. le Fort, Envoy from the King of Poland, was taken very ill some Days ago, and continues very much indisposed.

A great Number of People are seized here with the same Distemper, or a Cold attended with a Fever. The States General have delivered to the Resident of the Bishop of Liege their Answer to the last Letter which the Bishop wrote; which Answer contains a long Deduction, in Opposition to the Pretension of the said Bishop for establishing the Constitution at Maestricht without their Consent.
