

Whitehall, January 13, 1732-33.

Whereas on Tuesday the 2d Instant, about Five a-Clock in the Afternoon, William Wright, a Youth of Eighteen or Nineteen Years of Age, was murdered in a most barbarous Manner at or near Faldingworth Gap, about Two Miles distant from Market Rasen, in the County of Lincoln: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Murder, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of the Criminals, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any of them be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement to such Discoverers, William Thompson, of Great-Marlborough-street, in the County of Middlesex, Esq; does hereby promise, that whoever shall discover the Person or Persons concerned in the said Murder, so as he or they may be convicted thereof, shall upon such Conviction, receive from him as a Reward, the Sum of Forty Pounds for each Person so convicted.

Wm. Thompson.

RE. One of the Persons supposed to have committed the said Murder, is a slender coated Man with a thin Face, wearing a light-coloured natural Wig, and a white straight-buttoned Coat, with narrow or oblique Buttons on it, with a blue wide Riding Coat lined with yellow, and Brass Buttons; he rode up on a black lean Pencil Horse, about Fourteen Hands high, with a wisked Tail. And another of the Persons supposed also to have been concerned in the said Murder, is pale-faced, and marked with the Small-pox; he has on a straight bodied grey double-breasted Coat, with black Buttons, and a light-coloured Riding Coat, and a light-coloured natural Wig, and rode on a brownish Bay, strong Pencil Horse, about Fourteen Hands high, with a wisked Tail. They also took from the Deceased, and carried off, a strong dark brown Pencil Gelding, full aged, trars well, and paces also, and has a small Seat on the Fore-head, and no other white about him; he is about Fourteen Hands and a half high, and has a long whole Tail, if not altered.

Whitehall, Dec. 1.

Whereas an anonymous Letter was, in the Beginning of November last, received by Mr. Nicholas Baker, a Farmer, at Peckham Rye, near Camberwell in Surrey, threatening, that in Case he did not send Ten Guineas or Ten Pounds on Monday the 5th Day of the said Month of November, at Three a-Clock in the Afternoon, tied up in a Basket, directed for Mr. Lovewell, to be left at the Half Moon Tavern by White Chapel Church, till called for, the Writers of the said Letter would burn his Stacks to the Ground, and if he discovered this Matter they would shoot him through the Head: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in so heinous a Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one concerned in writing the said Letter, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a farther Encouragement, Peter Cock, of Camberwell, Esq; does hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Guineas to the Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid upon Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

Peter Cock.
