AT the Court at St. James's, the Tenth Day of May, 1733.

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty having been pleased to deliver the Custody of the Privy Seal to the Right Honourable Henry Viscount Lonsdale, the Oath of Keeper of the Privy Seal was this Day administered to him, and his Lordship took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Robert Lord Walpole to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Devon, and of the City of Exeter and County of the same, his Lordship this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

Hague, May 19, N. S. Most of the Members of the States of Holland went to their respective Homes last Saturday; but they are returned, and have resumed their Assembly to Day. It is expected they will come to a Resolution this Week as well on the Affair of the Number of Troops to be kept up this Year, as on the Claims of the Prince of Orange. One of the Counsellors, and he the only Protestant of the Four of which the Court of Justice at Venlo is composed, being dead, and the States having nominated another Protestant in his Room, Count Sinzendorff has complained much of it, alledging that it is contrary to the Treaties with the Emperor; but their High Mightinesses think otherwise, that Court of Justice having been erected by themselves, and having no Relation to the Treaties. There is to be a Conference on this Subject To-morrow between Deputies of this State and Count Sinzendorff. Yesterday the Envoy of Tunis set out from hence for Rotterdam, there to embark for London. The last Advices from Dresden tell us, that the Electress was thought to be at the Point of Death when the Letters came away.

A General Meeting of Trustees for repairing and amending the Turnpike Roads in the Counties of Surry and Suffex, is appointed to be held on Saturday the 26th Instant, at the White Lyon at Croydon, at Ten a Clock in the Forenoon, to chuse Trustees in the Room of those deceased, and others refusing to act.

Tapestry Office, May 9, 1733.

Whereas a General Meeting of the Proprietors or Copartners in the Patent for weaving Tapestry in the Loom, held at the Golden Lyon Tavern within Temple-Bar on the 4th Instant, did unanimously agree, That a Call of Twenty Pounds per Share be made on the Proprietors, payable on or before this 11th Day of April, 1733, which is the last Call that can be made by Virtue of the said Patent: And whereas some of the Proprietors have not complied with that Order; the Managers of the Undertaking do hereby give Notice to such deficient Proprietors, That they are required forthwith to pay their Call or Calls to Mr. John Erwer, Banker, in Pall Mall, or else they will be totally excluded from any Benefit in the said Undertaking and Copartnership, according to the Articles of Agreement. N. B. This is the Third and last Time of advertising. By Order, Henry Hall.
