Petersbourg, May 5, O. S.

HE 28th past being the Anniversary of the Czarina's Coronation, there was a great Appearance of Nobility and Gentry at Court, in very magnificent Cloaths. The Prince of Bevern had the Honour to dine with her Majesty; and the two Princesses, and all the Foreign Ministers and Ladies, at another Table. In the Evening there was a Ball at Court, and a very fine Fire-Work and Illuminations on the River. Her Majesty has been pleased to make the Prince of Bevern Colonel of a new Regiment of Cuiraffiers which is raising; the Horses to mount the same, are soon expected from Germany. Last Monday her Majesty went to the Admiralty, to see a Man of War of 64 Guns launched, which was built by Mr. Noy, an Englishman, which was built by Mr. Noy, an Englishman, and named the Hopes of Russia; at the same Time a little Ship of 16 Guns was also launched in her Majesty's Presence.

Hague, June 5, N. S. The States of Holland are assembled, but nothing material has as yet been done in their Assembly.
