MAjor General Savornin is promoted to the Rank of Lieutenant General, in the Room of Baron Keppell deceased. Yesterday and to Day the States of the Province of Holland being assembled, have disposed of several Military Employments that were vacant. The Command of the Regiment of Foot Guards is conferred on Brigadier Wassenauer, whose Regiment of Dragoons will not be disposed of till the next Session of the States of Holland. The Command of the Regiment of Foot of the late Baron Keppell is conferred on M. Tilly his Lieutenant Colonel. The Commission of Major of the Horse Guards is given to M. de Hompesch, Nephew of the late General of that Name, and Son in Law of M. Boetselaer. The said States have likewise disposed of several Companies of Foot and Troops of Horse in the Guards and in other Regiments. It is not doubted but M. de Boetselaer will obtain for his Son the Office of Commissioner of the Admiralty of Amsterdam, vacant by the Death of M. de Noortwyk, which Lieutenant General Wassenauer might have had if he would have quitted his Military Post in the Land Service. On Sunday last died M. Freyman, Major General and Lieutenant Colonel of the Foot Guards, so that there are two more Vacancies to fill up. The Marquess de Fernelon received on the 8th Instant an Express from his Court, and was Yesterday and to Day in Conference with certain Deputies of this State: Count Zinzendorff has likewise frequent Conferences with the States, concerning the Affairs of Poland. The Prince of Orange is expected back here from Friesland To-Night or To-morrow Morning.
