AT the Court at Hampton-Court, the 19th Day of July, 1733.

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to order, That the Parliament which stands prorogued to Thursday the Twenty Sixth of this Instant July, should be further prorogued to Tuesday the Ninth Day of October next.

Hampton-Court, July 20.

Yesterday M. Bunau, Minister from the Elector of Saxony, had a private Audience of the King, and presented to his Majesty a Letter from his Master, notifying the Birth of a Princess.

A General Council was held, and His Majesty ordered a Proclamation to be issued, and a Reward of Fifty Pounds to be promised for every Deer-Stealer that shall be apprehended and convicted of destroying the Deer in any of His Majesty's Chaces and Forests.

There was at Court a numerous and splendid Appearance of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction; and their Majesties dined in publick.

Admiralty Office, July 13, 1733.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June past, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the better Government of the Charity for Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy; These are to give Notice to all such Widows as aforesaid, whose Husbands died on or since the 30th of August 1732, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, and also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford and Woolwich, and the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale, where they may be informed of all Particulars which entitle such Widows to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose: But such Widows as live at too great Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Mr. Corbett, at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Court of Assistants for Management of the said Charity do hereby give Notice, that they will meet at the Admiralty Office on Tuesday the 11th of September, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, to receive the Claims of such Widows as shall be qualified according to the said Rules and Orders.
