Petersbourg, September 15.

THIS Court has received Advice from Derbent, that their Troops had again beaten the Crim Tartars, who had made a second Attempt to force a Passage that Way to Persia, and that the Tartars were obliged to retire to the Mountains after they had lost about 200 Men. This Court has likewise received Advices from Constantinople, which inform them, that the Turks having entirely defeated Tachmach Culicam in two Battles, he had been obliged to raise the Siege of Babylon, and to retire with about 1000 Men, after having received two Wounds. The Prince of Bevern, who has been indisposed for some Time, is at present much better.

Copenhagen, Octob. 10, N. S. The French Squadron lies now ready to sail, in order to return to Brett, waiting only for a fair Wind to carry them through the Sound.

Hampton-Court, Otober 14.

This Day M. de Borcke, Minister from the King of Prussia, had his first private Audience of his Majesty, to deliver his Letters of Credence; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Harrington one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

He had afterwards a private Audience of Her Majesty; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Grantham Her Majesty's Lord Chamberlain, and conducted by the Master of the Ceremonies.

October 6, 1733.

At a Meeting of the Commissioners appointed by his Majesty's Commission, under the Great Seal of Great-Britain, to take a Survey of the Officers of the Court of Common Pleas, and to enquire into their Fees.

Ordered, That all Persons claiming to be Officers, Clerks or Ministers, of or within the said Court of Common Pleas, do forthwith lay before the said Commissioners (by leaving the same in Writing with Mr. Sharpe their Secretary, at his Chambers No 6. Pump Court in the Temple,) an Account of the Nature of their respective Offices, and what Service, Charge and Attendance doth belong unto each of them, by virtue of their respective Offices, and what Fees, Rewards and Wages every of the said Officers, Clerks and Ministers, and their Substitutes or Under-Clerks, have and take for and in Respect of their several Offices and Places.

Jos. Sharpe, Secy.

The Committee for Letting the Cities Lands in the Account of the Chamberlain of the City of London, give Notice, That they intend to Let by Lease, a Messuage or Tenement in West-Smithfield, known by the King's Arms Inn, now in the Tenure or Occupation of Mr. Francis Swan; the Reⁿ Corw adjoining, in the Tenure or Occupation of Mr. Charles Negroes, and several other Messuages or Tenements there; together with the Profits of the Penns in West-Smithfield aforesaid: And that the said Committee will sit in the Council Cham-
