Cracow, January 16, N. S.

THE 13th Instant the Bishop of Pofnania, and the Marshal of the Confederacy, after having presented to the Elector of Saxony the Diploma of his Election to the Crown of Poland, invited his Majesty to honour this City with his Presence; after which Count Wilzeck, Ambassadour from the Emperour, had an Audience of his Majesty, as had also Count Levenvolde, Master of the Horse to the Czarina, who delivered him a Letter of Credence from her Czarish Majesty. The Prelate and Suffragan Bishop of Cracow, a Relation of the Primate, who was attached to the other Party, has made his Submission to King Augustus, as has likewise the Palatin of Siradie, Szembeck, Brother to the late Grand Chancellor, and it is reported that a great many others have the same Intention. Prince Sangusko, Marshal of the Court of Lithuania, is arrived here from his Seat at Wifzic. On the 14th King Augustus made his Entry into this City on Horseback. Yesterday the Interment of the Corpe of the late King Augustus the Second was performed in the Cathedral Church with the usual Ceremonies; and the Coronation of their Majesties is fixed for To-morrow.

Hague, Jan. 29, N. S. The Town of Dort having at last consented to concur with the rest of the Members of Holland for the Delivery of the Effects demanded by the Prince of Orange, the Deputies of Holland at the Assembly of the States General declared this Morning, that they agreed to the Resolution of the Five other Provinces for the said Delivery; and accordingly it was resolved that it shall be forthwith made, without regard to Zealand, which still refuses to consent. The States have sent for the Commissaries of the Admiralties, to consult them upon the State of their Navy. By the last Account from Italy, the Confederate Army was going to besiege Tortona, in hopes that Town will make no better Defence than the rest have done, which were ordered, as it is said, not to resist long, in order to save the Garrisons. We have Advices here, that the Muscovites have made themselves Masters of Thorn, and that there was a great Consternation at Dantzick on their so near Approach to that City.
