

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen, assembled at the General Assizes for the County of Devon, holden at Exon, March 26, 1734.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the happy Conclusion of the Marriage between the Princess Royal and his most Serene Highness the Prince of Orange.

As this affords a just Occasion of Joy to all your Majesty's loyal Subjects, so we more especially have Reason to reflect upon it with the utmost Expressions of Gratitude, being the first that were sensible of the happy Effects that accrued to this Nation by the glorious Revolution.

A Revolution, to which we not only owe the present Succession in your Majesty's august Family, but also our Deliverance from Popery and arbitrary Power, the Continuance of our religious and civil Rights, and all that is dear to us.

That there may never be wanting a Branch of your Majesty's most illustrious House to fill the Throne of this Kingdom, is the hearty Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, &c.

The following Address having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Dorset Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty. Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin in Common Council assembled, most humbly crave Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Marriage of the Princess Royal with his most Serene Highness the Prince of Orange.

This Alliance which your Majesty has been pleased to make with the House of Nassau, gives us a happy Opportunity of expressing our Joy at the Prosperity of that Family which gave us our great Deliverer King William the Third, of ever glorious Memory, who not only by his victorious Arms, rescued our Religion and Liberties, but by his Prudence secured them to us, fixing the Succession to the Crown of these Kingdoms in your Majesty's illustrious House.

The constant Care which your Royal Father and your Majesty have successively taken to preserve our Religious and Civil Rights, shews how wisely that great Prince provided for the future good of his Subjects, and lays an indispensable Obligation on us in our several Stations, to endeavour to make your Majesty's Reign as happy and glorious as we wish it may be long over us.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of the said City, to be hereto affixed this 1st Day of April, 1734.

St. James's, April 8.

This Day Baron Wachtendonk, Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector Palatine, had a private Audience of Leave of his Majesty; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Harrington one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

He was afterwards introduced to a private Audience of Leave of her Majesty, by the Right Honourable the Earl of Grantham her Majesty's Lord Chamberlain, and conducted by the Master of the Ceremonies.

Navy Office, April 8, 1734.

The Rt. Hon. the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury having appointed Money for paying of Half Pay to Sea Officers from the First of July 1733, to the 31st of December 1733, according to his late Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf; these are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad-street, at Nine a-Clock in the Morning the following Days, to wit, on Thursday the 18th of this Month for the Captains, Friday the 19th for the Lieutenants, and Saturday the 20th for the Masters and Surgeons, that all Persons concerned may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required, touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid the said Half Pay, but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to his present Majesty; and in case any of the said Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.
