And to Sixteen private Bills.

After which, His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

I Give you my hearty Thanks for the great Dispatch you have given to the publick Business, and for the Confidence you have reposed in me for the Honour and Security of my Kingdom; so short a Session, at so critical and important a Conjunction, concluded with so much Unanimity, and so just a Regard for the true Interest of the Nation, will give great Weight and Credit to all our publick Transactions, and procure that Respect and Dependance upon the great Council of this Nation, which are so necessary to support the Honour and Interest of Great Britain both at Home and Abroad.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I must acknowledge in a particular Manner, the Zeal and Readiness, which you have shewn, in raising; in so effectual a Manner, the necessary Supplies for the Service of the Year; the Provision you have made for paying off great Part of the Debt of the Navy, a Debt, necessarily and unavoidably incurred, and carrying a higher Interest than the old national Debt, and which being at a Discount, increased the Charge and Expence, in all Contracts of the Navy and Victualling, must certainly be thought of singular Service to the Publick.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

The Time limited for the Expiration of this Parliament drawing near, I have resolved forthwith to issue my Proclamation for the dissolving of it, and for calling a new Parliament, that the Inconveniencies unavoidably attending a general Election may be put an End to as soon as possible; but I should think my self inexcusable, if I parted with this Parliament, without doing them the Justice, to acknowledge the many signal Proofs they have given, through the Course of Seven Years, of their Duty, Fidelity and Attachment to my Person and Government, and their constant Regard to the true Interest of their Country.

The Prosperity and Glory of my Reign depend upon the Affection and Happiness of my People, and the Happiness of my People upon my preserving to them all their legal Rights and Privileges, as established under the present Settlement of the Crown in the Protestant Line; a due Execution and strict Observance of the Laws are the best and only Security both to Sovereign and Subject; their Interest is mutual and inseparable, and therefore their Endeavours for the Support of each other ought to be equal and reciprocal; any Infringement or Incroachment upon the Rights of either, is a Diminution of the Strength of both, which kept within their due due Bounds and Limits, make that just Balance which is necessary for the Honour and Dignity of the Crown, and for the Protection and Prosperity of the People; what depends upon me, shall on my Part, be religiously kept and observed, and I make no Doubt of receiving the just Returns of Duty and Gratitude from them.

I must in a particular manner recommend it to you, and from your known Affection do expect that you will use your best Endeavours to heal the unhappy Divisions of the Nation, and to reconcile the Minds of all who truly and sincerely wish the Safety and Welfare of the Kingdom: It would be the greatest Satisfaction to me to see a perfect Harmony restored amongst them, that have one and the same principle at Heart, that there might be no Distinction but of such as mean the Support of our present happy Constitution in Church and State, and such as wish to subvert both; this is the only Distinction that ought to prevail in this Country, where the Interest of King and People is one and the same, and where they cannot subsist but by being so; if Religion, Liberty, and Property were never at any Time more fully enjoyed, without not only any Attempt but even the Shadow of a Design, to alter or invade them; let not these sacred Names be made use of as artful and plausible Pretences, to undermine the present Establishment, under which alone they can be safe.

I have nothing to wish, but that my People may not be misguided; I appeal to their own Consciences for my Conduct, and hope the Providence of God will direct them in the Choice of such Representatives, as are most fit to be trusted with the Care and Preservation of the Protestant Religion, the present Establishment, and all the Religious and Civil Rights of Great Britain.

The following Address of the ancient Corporation of Queenborough, in the County of Kent, has been presented to his Majesty by George Saunders, Esq; and Captain Richard Evans, their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Dunmore, Lord of the Bedchamber in waiting. Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Jurats, Bailiffs and Burgesses, of the ancient Corporation of Queenborough, in the County of Kent.

May it please your Majesty,

WITH Hearts full of Duty and Gratitude we beg Leave to approach your sacred Person, with our humble Congratulations on the Marriage of the Princess Royal with his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange: An Event, which, as it creates an universal Joy throughout the whole Nation, so is it no where more sensibly felt than by your Majesty's ancient and loyal Corporation of Queenborough.

When we reflect on the great Blessings derived to us from the late glorious King William of immortal Memory, in the Preservation of our Liberties, we cannot but look upon an Alliance between a Prince of that House, conspicuous for his great and aimable Endowments, and a Princess peculiarly distinguished for every eminent Accomplishment, as a signal Instance of your Majesty's Tenderness for your People, as well as a sure and lasting Foundation, under God, of the Freedom and Welfare, not only of your Majesty's Dominions, but of the Protestant Interest of all Europe.

We have a grateful Sense of the Happiness flowing from the Wisdom and Steadiness of your Majesty's Councils and Administration, and of all the Blessings which a free Nation can hope to enjoy under a wise and gracious Prince.

May the Pleasure your Majesty and your Royal Consort always feel in doing Good to your People, be increased by a Length of Years; and may there never be wanting one of your Royal Progeny to sit on the Throne of these Realms, following your great Example, and your Royal Ancestors, in the Cause and Defence of Liberty, and in protecting us from Popery and arbitrary Power.

Given under our Corporation Seal, at the Guildhall at Queenborough, this 11th Day of April, 1734.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, and the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury of the County of Flint; and likewise of the Mayor, Recorder, and Bailiffs of the Borough of Flint, having been presented to his Majesty; his Majesty was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, and the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury of the County of Flint, and likewise of the Mayor, Recorder and Bailiffs of the Borough of Flint.

WE your Majesty's most loyal Subjects beg Leave to joyn in the Common Joy of congratulating your Majesty upon the happy Marriage of the Princess Royal with the Prince of Orange.

An Union between a Princess whom Nature has adorn'd with the most amiable Virtues; which have received the highest Embellishments by the wise Instructions and perfect Example of her Royal Parents; and a Prince whose universal Accomplishments add Glory to the illustrious Family from whence he Sprung, gives the fullest Prospect of Bliss to the whole Protestant World: The House of Orange have ever been the great Bulwark of true Religion and virtuous Liberty, which bravely delivered the Netherlands from the cruel Yoke of Spain, and gave Britain her immortal Deliverer King William, and thro' him the Perfection of our Bliss in your Majesty's most mild and auspicious Reign. That the blappiness of Mankind may be transmitted to latest Ages by this illustrious Marriage, and that your Majesty may long Live to see the happy Effects of it, and of all the Blessings you have given us, and that the Hearts of all your Subjects may be ever as full of loyal Gratitude as ours, is the earnest Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful, obedient, and faithful Subjects.

The following Address has been presented to his Majesty, by John Campbell, Esq; Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Annual Committee of the Convention of the Royal Burrows of Scotland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Annual Committee of the Convention of the Royal Burrows of your Majesty's Ancient Kingdom of Scotland, do humbly beg Leave to share in the universal Joy of the Nation, on Account of the Marriage of the Princess Royal with his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange. An Alliance with a Prince of the illustrious House of Nassau, so justly fam'd for great Men, who have been the Assertors of publick Liberty, and the eminent Supporters of the Protestant Interest of Europe, adds a Strength to the glorious Cause of Liberty and Religion, that cannot fail to give the greatest Satisfaction to these Nations, who, in a great Measure, owe the many Blessings we now enjoy, under the mild Government of so good and gracious a Sovereign, to our Deliverance from Popery and Slavery, by a Prince of that illustrious House, King William the Third of glorious and immortal Memory.

May it please your Majesty,

As we have the Honour to represent the trading Part of this Nation, we humbly beg Leave to embrace this Opportunity to express our great Thankfulness for your Majesty's Royal Care and Favours bestowed on this Part of your United Kingdom. The good Effects of the Application of the publick Funds, destined for the Encouragement of our National Fisheries and Manufactures, by your Majesty's Direction, are universally and sensibly felt: These Improvements owe their Rise to one of the earliest Acts of your Majesty's happy Administration, and their Success is intirely owing to the Continuance of your Royal Countenance and Protection, in being most graciously pleased to direct, from Time to Time, the proper Methods for the furdur Improvement and Extention of these great National Benefits, which so evidently appear to be the peculiar Objects of your Majesty's Royal Care.

May your Subjects, on all Occasions, express their Gratitude and Sense of the manifold Blessings we enjoy under the present happy Administration, by their Loyalty, Zeal, and Affection for your Majesty's Person and Government: May your Reign be long and prosperous, and may there never be wanting one of your Royal Family to sway the Sceptre over us to latest Posterity; this is the most sincere and hearty Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most loyal, most faithful and dutiful Subjects and Servants, the Annual Committee of the Convention of the Royal Burrows of Scotland.

Edinburgh April 9, 1734.

Signed in their Presence, and by their Appointment, by P. Lindesay, Preses.

The following Address of the French Protestant Refugees has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

A U R O Y.

LES Protestants François Réfugiés, vos très fideles Sujets, demandent, avec le plus profond Respect, à votre Majesté la permission de lui témoigner la joye dont leurs cœurs sont pénétrés pour l'heureux Mariage de son Altesse Royale avec Monseigneur le Sérénissime Prince d'Orange. Ce choix si digne de la Sagesse et de la Religion de votre Majesté, fait l'applaudissement de l'Eglise Protestante, et nous fait révéler de plus en plus en vous le Defenseur de la Foi. Nous partageons, Sire, avec vos autres Sujets les avantages inestimables de votre heureux et juste Gouvernement: Et nous recevons des marques particulieres de la bonté de votre Majesté. La Religion, la Reconnoissance, et votre propre Interest nous attachent au service de votre Majesté, par des liens indissolubles. Nous ne cessons jamais de demander à Dieu, par nos prieres les plus ardentes, la conservation de votre Personne sacrée, et la prospérité de votre auguste Famille, et de votre Regne.

The following Address of the City of St. Andrews has been presented to his Majesty by John Drummond, Esq; Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the City of St. Andrews.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of your ancient City of St.

Andrews, in Common Council assembled; do humbly beg Leave, upon this most joyful Occasion of the happy Marriage of the Princess Royal to his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange, to express our utmost Satisfaction with an Alliance so very agreeable to all your Majesty's good Subjects. The Thoughts of being once more united with a Prince of the illustrious House of Nassau, equally famous by their Valour and Wisdom in the Defence of publick Liberty, and Support of the Protestant Interest in Europe, raises in us the highest Esteem of your Majesty's Goodness, by whom this Event is happily brought about.

We also most humbly beg Leave to embrace this Opportunity to express and testify the most grateful and just Sense of our own Happiness under your Majesty's most benign and most auspicious Reign; and that by the Establishment of the Crown of these Realms in your Majesty's Royal Family, these Blessings deriv'd to our Country by the glorious King William the Third, are secured to us and our Posterity; and when it so fully appears, that every Act of your Majesty's Administration tends so much to the Happiness of your People, we cannot but entertain a most grateful Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under a Sovereign so good and gracious.

That the God of Heaven may continue to bless your Majesty, and direct your Councils; that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous; that your Subjects may ever be loyal and dutiful, becoming the Sense of so many Mercies; and that there may never be wanting one of your Royal Family to reign over us, is the earnest and fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful, most faithful, and most loyal Subjects and Servants.

Wakefield, the 10th of April, 1734.

WE the Dissenting Ministers in Yorkshire, think it expedient at this critical Juncture to declare for ourselves and our respective Congregations, that we are firmly attach'd to his Majesty's Person and Government, in Opposition to all the avowed Enemies of both, and to the crafty Insinuations of Malecontents, who would propagate a groundless and dangerous Distinction betwixt a Court and Country Interest; and that we shall exert ourselves for the Choice of such Gentlemen to represent us in the ensuing Parliament, as are well affected to the King and his Royal House, and true to the civil and religious Liberties of their Country.

Signed by Forty Ministers.
