

lest Gratitude we remember the Name of that Great Prince King William the Third (of immortal Memory) who gloriously effected the happy Revolution which restored to these Kingdoms (and we trust will transmit to latest Posterity) the free and full Enjoyment of all our Civil and Religious Rights, by the Settlement of the Crown in your Majesty's Royal Person and Family.

We earnestly wish that his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange, and his Royal Consort (who is possess'd of all princely Virtues) may be crowned with Happiness, and blessed with a numerous Issue, whereby the Name of Nassau Orange may continue famous to future Ages.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, and the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury of the County of Flint; and likewise of the Mayor, Recorder, and Bailiffs of the Borough of Flint, having been presented to his Majesty; his Majesty was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, and the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury of the County of Flint, and likewise of the Mayor, Recorder and Bailiffs of the Borough of Flint.

WE your Majesty's most loyal Subjects beg Leave to joyn in the Common Joy of congratulating your Majesty upon the happy Marriage of the Princess Royal with the Prince of Orange.

An Union between a Princess whom Nature has adorn'd with the most amiable Virtues; which have received the highest Embellishments by the wise Instructions and perfect Example of her Royal Parents; and a Prince whose universal Accomplishments add Glory to the illustrious Family from whence he Sprung, gives the fullest Prospect of Bliss to the whole Protestant World: The House of Orange have ever been the great Bulwark of true Religion and virtuous Liberty, which bravely delivered the Netherlands from the cruel Yoke of Spain, and gave Britain her immortal Deliverer King William, and thro' him the Perfection of our Bliss in your Majesty's most mild and auspicious Reign. That the blappiness of Mankind may be transmitted to latest Ages by this illustrious Marriage, and that your Majesty may long Live to see the happy Effects of it, and of all the Blessings you have given us, and that the Hearts of all your Subjects may be ever as full of loyal Gratitude as ours, is the earnest Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful, obedient, and faithful Subjects.

The following Address has been presented to his Majesty, by John Campbell, Esq; Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Annual Committee of the Convention of the Royal Burrows of Scotland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Annual Committee of the Convention of the Royal Burrows of your Majesty's Ancient Kingdom of Scotland, do humbly beg Leave to share in the universal Joy of the Nation, on Account of the Marriage of the Princess Royal with his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange. An Alliance with a Prince of the illustrious House of Nassau, so justly fam'd for great Men, who have been the Assertors of publick Liberty, and the eminent Supporters of the Protestant Interest of Europe, adds a Strength to the glorious Cause of Liberty and Religion, that cannot fail to give the greatest Satisfaction to these Nations, who, in a great Measure, owe the many Blessings we now enjoy, under the mild Government of so good and gracious a Sovereign, to our Deliverance from Popery and Slavery, by a Prince of that illustrious House, King William the Third of glorious and immortal Memory.

May it please your Majesty,

As we have the Honour to represent the trading Part of this Nation, we humbly beg Leave to embrace this Opportunity to express our great Thankfulness for your Majesty's Royal Care and Favours bestowed on this Part of your United Kingdom. The good Effects of the Application of the publick Funds, destined for the Encouragement of our National Fisheries and Manufactures, by your Majesty's Direction, are universally and sensibly felt: These Improvements owe their Rise to one of the earliest Acts of your Majesty's happy Administration, and their Success is intirely owing to the Continuance of your Royal Countenance and Protection, in being most graciously pleased to direct, from Time to Time, the proper Methods for the furdur Improvement and Extention of these great National Benefits, which so evidently appear to be
