

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 16. to Saturday April 20. 1734.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For Dissolving this present Parliament, and declaring the Calling of another.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which now stands prorogued to Tuesday the Fourteenth Day of May next: We do for that end publish this our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are discharged from their Meeting and Attendance on Tuesday the said Fourteenth Day of May next. And, being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet our People, and have their Advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all our loving Subjects our Royal Will and Pleasure to call a new Parliament; and do hereby further declare, That, with the Advice of our Privy Council, We have this Day given Order to our Chancellor of Great Britain to issue out Writs in due Form for calling a new Parliament, which Writs are to bear Teste on Thursday the Eighteenth Day of this Instant April, and to be returnable on Thursday the Thirteenth Day of June next.

Given at Our Court at St. James's the Seventeenth Day of April, 1734, in the Seventh Year of Our Reign.

God save the KING.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

In Order for the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We have in Council thought fit to declare our Pleasure for summoning and holding a Parliament of Great Britain on Thursday the Thirteenth Day of June next ensuing the Date hereof: In order therefore for the electing and summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament, We do, by Advice of our Privy Council, issue this our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet in the Room commonly called the Borough Room in our City of Edinburgh, on Tuesday the Fourth Day of June next, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and chuse the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, to sit and vote in the House of Peers in the said ensuing Parliament, by open Election, and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the Proxies for such as shall be absent, such Proxies being Peers and producing a Mandate in Writing duly signed before Witnesses, and both the Constituent and Proxies being qualified according to Law. And the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the principal Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes, and immediately after such Election made, and duly examined, to certify fy the Names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and sign and attest the same in the Presence of the said Peers the Electors, and forthwith to return such Certificate into our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And we strictly charge and command, that this our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns of Scotland, Twenty five Days at least before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such Election.

[Price Four Pence.]

*Witness Our Self at St. James's the Seventeenth Day of April, 1734, in the Seventh Year of our Reign.
God save the King.*

St. James's, April 17.

His Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to order that the respective Convocations of Canterbury and York, should be forthwith dissolved; and that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, should issue Writs for electing new Members for the said Convocations, which Writs are to bear Teste the 26th of this Instant April, and to be returnable on the 21st of June next.

Whitehall, April 19.

The following Address having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Dorset, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Nobility, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Freeholders, at a General Assizes held at Maryborough, the 30th of March, 1734, for the Queen's County in Ireland, before the Honourable Sir John St. Leger, and John Waynright, Esq; Barons of your Majesty's Court of Exchequer.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave at this Time of universal Joy, to congratulate your Majesty on the Marriage of her Highness the Princess Royal to his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange.

As every faithful Subject in your Majesty's Dominions has a real and true Sense of this happy Union, the Protestants of Ireland have particular Reason gratefully to render their hearty Thanks to your Majesty for chusing an Alliance with the House of Orange, to whom they owe their Deliverance from Popery and arbitrary Power, at a Time when no human Means, other than the Virtue and Resolution of his late Majesty King William (of ever glorious Memory) could have prevailed.

May this our Happiness be completed by a numerous Offspring, endowed with all the truly noble Qualities inherent to their illustrious Ancestors, and thereby the Name of the Founder of our blessed Revolution be preserved to the latest Ages.

The following Address having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Dorset, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty, The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars, beg Leave, in the humblest Manner, to congratulate your Majesty on the Marriage of the Princess Royal to his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange.

An Alliance so well calculated to strengthen the Protestant Interest of Europe, and to secure to your People the Continuance of that Happiness they at present enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, cannot fail to fill the Hearts of all your faithful Subjects with Joy and Gratitude, as it gives them the strongest Assurances of your paternal Care and Affection for them.

It is the greatest Pleasure to us of this Church and Nation to see a Daughter of Great Britain, adorned with all the Virtues and Accomplishments for which her Royal Mother is so justly admired, bestowed in Marriage on a Prince, who recalls to our Minds the many and signal Obligations we lie under to his glorious Predecessor King William the Third, whose Memory must be ever dear to Ireland. To his victorious Arms, taken up in the Cause of Liberty, it is (under God) indebted for the Recovery of its religious and civil Rights, and all the Blessings of your Majesty's Reign. And our Univerfity is particularly beholding to the same great Deliverer, that instead of Error and Superstition, useful Knowledge is now cultivated, and the Principles of true Religion and Loyalty are taught among us.

May Almighty God continue these invaluable Advantages to us, by granting your Majesty a long and prosperous Reign over us, and crowning it with all Happiness both publick and domestick. May He shed his choicest Blessings on our gracious Queen; and in His good Time, may every Branch of the Royal Line, by Alliances equally honourable in themselves, and acceptable to your People, give us the like Opportunity with the present, of addressing our unfeigned Thanks to him, and our sincere Congratulations to your Majesty.
give

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeses and Burgeses of the Corporation of Harwich, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Egmont, and Sir Philip Parker, Bart. their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeses and Burgeses of the Corporation of Harwich, ever sensible of your Majesty's constant Attention to the Welfare and Prosperity of your People, beg Leave to express our sincere Joy, that your Majesty has called to your Alliance his serene Highness the Prince of Orange; a Prince, whose Virtues equal his high Descent, and to whose illustrious House these Nations owe, not only the Preservation of their Religion and civil Rights, when invaded by Bigottry and arbitrary Power, but the secure Enjoyment of them, under your Majesty and your Royal Posterity.

Your Majesty's Care for continuing the Blessings we now possess, to the remotest Time, is so conspicuous, that we should be wanting to ourselves, if we did not in this publick Manner joyn with our Fellow Subjects, in returning our humble Thanks for the Conclusion of these happy Nuptials, which can have no Alloy but from the Loss these Kingdoms will sustain by the Absence of a Princess endowed with all Perfections; the Ornament and Delight of this Nation.

Done at a Court of Common Council this 8th of April, 1734.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the City of Chester, having been presented to his Majesty; his Majesty was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the City of Chester.

WE your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the City of Chester, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the happy Marriage of the Princess Royal to a Prince of the House of Orange, so universally celebrated for his great Accomplishments, that he adds Glory to the illustrious Family from whence he sprung; a Family ever renowned for diffusing Happiness to Mankind, which greatly rescued the Netherlands from Slavery, and gave Great Britain her glorious Deliverer King William, whose healing Presence in this Place is yet fresh in the Minds of many of us, who saw him embark with his victorious Troops to redeem our distressed Protestant Neighbours from Popery and Slavery; and has secured what we shall esteem our greatest Felicity, the still rising Glories of your Majesty's most happy Reign, which none but such as are in Love with Slavery, and incapable of being happy, can traduce. May Heaven have still further Blisses in Store for this auspicious Union between so noble a Prince and a Princess, whose native Virtues are improved by your Majesty's wise Dictates, and the perfect Example of your Royal Consort.

That the Happiness of a numerous Issue from this Marriage may be transmitted to the latest Ages, and your Majesty partake in the Joy of seeing them ripe in the Virtues of their great Ancestors, and long enjoy the serene Blessings of all the Comforts you bestow, is the zealous Prayer of your Majesty's most faithful and most loyal Subjects.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Port, Town, and Corporation of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, has been presented to his Majesty; which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of your Majesty's Ancient Port, Town and Corporation of Liverpool, in the County Palatine of Lancaster, (in Council assembled) under the Common Seal of the said Corporation, this 3d Day of April, 1734.

May it please your Majesty,

TO permit us to congratulate your Majesty on the Nuptials of the Princess Royal and his most serene Highness the Prince of Orange.

We of this trading Town are too sensible of the many happy Effects of the Glorious Revolution (accomplished for us by King William the Third) ever to be wanting in our most grateful Acknowledgements either to his Memory, or to the Person of a Prince descended from his Royal House: And we should be inconsistent with ourselves, if we did did not own this Royal Marriage to be not only an Instance of your Majesty's Goodness to your People, but the strongest Proof of your great Wisdom, Care and Watchfulness over their Religious and Civil Liberties to late Posterity.

Your Majesty, during the whole Course of your Reign, has convinced us, and all dutiful Subjects, that you make the Laws of our Country the only Rule of your Government.

And that your Majesty may continue to be assisted in your Councils by those who have always approved themselves faithful to your Royal Person and Illustrious Family, zealous for the Liberties, true Interests, and fair Trade of your Kingdoms, are the sincere Wishes of us your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Corporation of Pembroke, having been presented to his Majesty; his Majesty was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses, of the ancient Corporation of Pembroke, in the County of Pembroke.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of Pembroke, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our hearty Congratulations upon the happy Marriage of the Princess Royal with his most Serene Highness the Prince of Orange.

It is with the utmost Satisfaction that we see another Alliance perfected with that illustrious House of Nassau, from whence so many Heroes have descended, who have been Assertors of Liberty and the Terror of Tyrants; but none so particularly endeared to us as our late glorious Deliverer King William, whose Memory must be ever grateful to all the good People of these your Majesty's Kingdoms, which, when at the very Brink of Ruin, were, under God, by him rescued from Popery, Tyranny, and arbitrary Power, and our Religion, Laws and Liberties, and all that are or can be dear to any People, so fully secured in the Establishment of the Succession of the Crown in your Majesty's Royal Family, from whom we enjoy all the Advantages that can be desired by a free People, under the most wise, mild, and just Administration of your Majesty, who governs by no other Views than the Good of your People.

Were we not sensible of these many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Reign, we should be exceedingly wanting in the Duty we owe to your Majesty and our own Happiness; but much more to our Posterity, did we not make it our ardent Wishes, that your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts of your Subjects, and be ever victorious over your Enemies; that you may live, long live, to see many Princes descend from this happy Marriage, to be an additional Bulwark to the Protestant Interest and the Liberties of Europe; may their Royal Highnesses constantly enjoy a Happiness as exalted as their Births, and may all your Majesty's Royal Family daily increase in Honour and Prosperity, for your Majesty's great Satisfaction, the Good of these Kingdoms, and the Benefit of Mankind. These, may it please your Majesty, are the sincere Desires of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

* The following Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and other Gentlemen of the County Palatine of Lancaster, having been presented to his Majesty; his Majesty was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and other Gentlemen, met at the Assizes held for the County Palatine of Lancaster, on Saturday the 23d Day of March 1733.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and other Gentlemen, met at the Assizes held for the County Palatine of Lancaster, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the happy Marriage of the Princess Royal with his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange.

We are truly sensible of your Majesty's great Goodness and Wisdom in disposing of the Princess Royal to a Prince whose natural Abilities, and great Accomplishments, render him every Way qualified (in concert with your Majesty and the other Protestant Powers) to continue to us the Liberties we at present enjoy.

As we are daily more and more confirmed of the many inestimable Blessings which we (with the rest of your Majesty's Subjects) enjoy under your Majesty's wise, mild, and auspicious Government; so it is with the highest