Copenhagen, May 15, N. S.

WE have just received Advice, that three French Men of War were entred the Sound, having Troops on board designed for Dantzick.

Francfort, May 20. The Hanoverian Troops having passed by this Neighbourhood, continue their March towards Aschaffembourg, in order to their joining the Imperial Army, which remains still at Heilbron.

Hambourgh, May 21, N. S. On the 19th Instant his Danish Majesty review'd the 6000 Men design'd for the Rhine, which march'd off Yesterday, and this Day pass'd the Elbe. Letters from Poland advise, that 9000 Russians were march'd to join Count Munich's Army before Dantzick; that Major General Count Levenvolde, who commands at Cracow, was set out from thence with the Four Battallions of Saxon Troops that were in Garrison there; that he had Orders to go into Great Poland; and that the other Saxon Troops had also received Orders to join Count Munich with all possible Diligence before Dantzick.

Hague, May 25, N. S. Letters from Berlin of the 18th, confirm the Account of the Action before Dantzick; that the French Succours which are arrived at Wechselfmunde, amount to between two and three Thousand Men; and that they were actually landed under the Cannon of that Fort; but it was not known that they had thrown themselves into the Town.

Whitehall, May 18.
