Paris, September 8, N. S.

L E T T E R S from Naples of the 19th past, advise, that the grand Supply of Artillery and Ammunition which had been so long expected from Barcelona, was at last arrived there under Convoy of the St. Isidore Man of War, which had likewise brought Sixty Thousand Pieces of Eight for the Payment of the Troops that were designed for the Expedition to Sicily, and that the said Troops were to embark the 21st of the said Month. Advices from Madrid of the 25th past bring an Account, that the Prince of Asturias had been much indisposed with a Fever, but was then on the Recovery. Two Deputies lately arrived here from Milan, to implore his most Christian Majesty's Intercession with the King of Sardinia for a Remission of some Part of a Tax, have been refused an Audience, and ordered to apply directly to his Sardinian Majesty. Letters of the 2d Instant from the Army in Germany advise, that several Detachments had been sent to raise Contributions in the Country along the upper Rhine; that the Infantry were to encamp upon the Banks of that River; and the Cavalry to be sent into Quarters of Refreshment.

Admiralty Office, July 27, 1734.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the better Government of the Charity for Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy; These are to give Notice to all such Widows as aforesaid, whose Husbands died on or since the 30th of August, 1732, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, and also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford and Woolwich, and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where they may be informed of all Particulars which entitle such Widows to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose: But such Widows as live at so great Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Esq, at this Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And there being Ground to hope, that the Governors of the said Charity may be empowered to distribute some Relief to the Widows of such Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August, 1732, provided their Circumstances come within the Rules thereof, these are to give Notice to all such Widows to repair or send to the above-named Places, that they may be provided with the proper Certificates accordingly. And the Court of Assistants do hereby give Notice, that they shall meet at this Office on Tuesday the Tenth of September, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, to receive and ad-
