

Numb. 7345.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday October 26. to Tuesday October 29. 1734.

Berlin, October 26, N. S.

THE great Discharge of Humours and Matter from Holes which have broke out in his Prussian Majesty's Legs, has very much ealed the Oppression which that Prince had on his Breast, infomuch that he begins to breathe a little more freely than he did; but the Physicians continue still in their former Opinion, that he cannot recover.

Whitehall, October 29.

This Day at One a Clock in the Afternoon, their Majesties and the Royal Family came from Kensington to St. James's, to reside there during the Winter.

London, October 29.

Yesterday Sir Edward Bellamy, Kt. Lord Mayor Elect for the Year ensuing, was sworn at Guildhall; when the Chair and other Ensigns of Mayoralty were surrendered to him in the accustomed Manner.

This Day the new Lord Mayor, accompanied by the late Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder, and Sheriffs, in their Scarlet Gowns, went in their Coaches to the Water-Side, the Sword and Mace being carried before them, and the City Officers attending; and from thence proceeded in the City Barge, attended by the several Companies in their respective Barges adorned with Streamers and Pendants to Westminster; and having walked round the Hall and solemnly saluted all the Courts, they went to the Exchequer Bar, and the Lord Mayor did there take the Oaths appointed, and having recorded Warrants of Attorney in the proper Courts, they returned by Water to Black-friers, and from thence in Coaches with the usual Solemnity to Fishmongers Hall, where a magnificent Entertainment was provided; at which were present the Great Officers of State, divers of the Nobility, Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, the Judges, and other Persons of Quality and Distinction.

Whitehall, October 29, 1734.
