Hague, November 26, N. S.

THE Prince of Orange having received from Harwich at Helvoet-fluys Letters from her Royal Highness his Consort, returned hither last Tuesday Night. The Assembly of the States of Holland remains fixed to Wednesday next. The last Letters we have received here from the Armies in Italy are of the 12th Instant, and advise, that both Armies continued in their Posts, but that the Imperialists had received Part of the Succours ordered to them, and were expecting the rest very soon.

Whitehall, November 21.

Her Royal Highness the Princess of Orange having embarked at Harwich and put out to Sea on the 6th Instant, was obliged, by contrary Wind, to return thither on the 7th, from which Time the Wind continuing contrary, her Royal Highness left that Place on the 19th, and this Day passed over London Bridge on her Way to Dover, in order to embark there.

Trinity-House, London, Nov. 20, 1734.

The Master, Wardens, and Assistants of the Corporation of Trinity House give Notice, that at a General Court held here this Day, they have dismissed Mr. Francis Lilly from being a Pilot of the said Corporation, for misbehaving himself in the Conduct of the Italian Merchant, Captain Joseph Cartares Commander, by running her on the Last-Sand on the 8th of February last (on her outward-bound Voyage) and for his Ignorance in mistaking the Sand of the Last for that of the Spell.

The Committee for Letting the Cities Lands in the Account of the Chamberlain of the City of London, give Notice, That they intend to Let by several Leases the following Lots, viz. No 1. Three Messuages or Tenements in the Minorities, in the several Tenures or Occupations of Mr. James Mansell, Mr. Stephen Moore, Mr. Joseph Sowerby, and Mr. William Birkett. No 2. Three Messuages or Tenements in the Minorities aforesaid, in the several Tenures or Occupations of Mr. John Atkinson, Mr. Richard Landall, and Mr. Jeremiah Haynes. No 3. Dordrecht, October 19, 1734.

THE Honourable the Magistrates of Dordrecht, in Holland, give Notice, that in the Month of August last, arrived at one of their Ports, an English Ship called the Neptune, the Master whereof Parker Roe, of Milford, a few Days after absconded, having taken with him all Books and Papers belonging to the said Ship, so that no true Account can be had about her; but it is learned from the Mate and Boatswain, that she was bound for Cadiz, but instead of going there, went to Barcelona, from thence to sundry other Ports in the Mediterranean and the narrow Seas, and lastly from Norway. The Magistrates having had Information of the Commander's leaving the Ship, and no Person appearing to lay Claim to her or her Loading, have ordered the Goods and Ship to be secured until Publick Notice was given; whoever therefore have any Concern in either the Ship or Loading, may give in their Claim into the Secretary's Office of the City of Dordrecht, before the 1st Day of February next ensuing, New Style, which Time being elapsed, the said Magistrates will proceed to the Disposal of both Ship and Loading. Any Body desiring to be farther informed, may apply to the Dutch Envoy in Park Place, St. James's.
