Hague, December 7, N. S.

THE Prince of Orange having received Advice, that the Princess Royal his Confort was gone from Harwich for Dover in order to pass over to Calais, left this Place on Saturday last in the Morning to go and meet her Royal Highness. The States of Holland have resumed their Assembly this Day, but very likely will separate in a few Days, the Pensionary being disabled by the Gout from assisting in the Assembly: However it is thought they will settle their Sea Affairs before they part, the Commissioners of the Admiralty continuing here, and conferring every Day with their Deputies. The Council of State are preparing as fast as possible the State of the War for the next Year, to be communicated to the said States this Session if it can be got ready; and it is said a Proposal for augmenting the Forces will be inserted in the Petition. We have an Account here, that the Germans in Italy have passed the Oglio and taken Sabionetta, where there were 250 French, who marched out by Capitulation.

Calais, Nov. 28. Her Royal Highness the Princess of Orange, embarked on the Fubbs Yacht at Dover last Night, and lay on board. At Eight this Morning the Yacht sailed, and at Three this Afternoon Her Royal Highness landed here: The very same Hour his Highness the Prince of Orange arrived here to meet Her. Her Royal Highness was very Sick in this Passage of Seven Hours, the Wind having been contrary: But since Her coming on Shore she is pretty well recovered. Their Highnesses design to proceed from hence on Saturday. The Prince came hither by the Way of Bruges, Ostend, Newport, and Furnes.

Deal, November 29.

Last Night about Ten a-Clock, arrived in the Downs his Majesty's Yacht the Fubbs, commanded by Captain Collier, who had landed her Royal Highness the Princess of Orange at Calais that Afternoon.
