The London Gazette.

Babingerly Authouty.

from waltan December 23 so Chilisday December 26. 1672.

Whitehal, De 123.

I Majedy has be pleased to cause H at R yel Proclamation to be issued, as solution in Whereas vers Seamen, Marin is and others and layed in His Majesties Se vice as ib ca diffed on board seven serve and with man h ax, have defented that Course where f 10 ne that have off rel death, ac. His last being Grui Merce the retter and Mercy the reject to a Royal F octamet n, fr Remi Call and every the st s, doth by this his ardon, Release, an f nen, Mariners, and others all Offences and Cru f this nature, and from an factor Pr sciti no therewas. Al Hs will mand and c is an mand a and c Minist s, Civi s, Civi a | Mi itiry in any art to call into q lip any somethy, Mand different Interests of the several Princes, that are riner, to bors, fran ritte the ng hereby Purchenginged in this Treaty; It is reposted as if the done to Discharged. And Hi fix expects that the fix expects there is complaint the Dyer, of the Brandenburgh seem to Example to the first and, Merch Frompt's having very much ruined his Countrey, as should the in the meet of the future in the first transfer to the second se should the in the miles of the future in the Malaster and the like Offences again; which if any shall presume to commit, they shall bereister be proceeded against with Malchar Lawis wo not to fan

Danizick, Dec. 10. Letters from Warfam of the 2d. instant tellus, That they had the confirmation of the Armies having I worn to maintain their Confederation that the principal Heads of it, are, the Weywode of Kiovia, the two Castellans of Belgre and Samos, the Crown Carver, the Crown Standard-B arer, and the Chevalier Lubomirsky, with feveral others of the most eminent of the Nobility; and that they had chosen the Grand Maishal Sobietaky to be their President or Director, But that two of the Kings Companies, as also the under General Prince Wisnowitsky, with the Weywode of Sigrad, had refuled to enter into this Confederation, which gives us some hopes that it will at last come to nothing; however the King hath as we are told, been warned from an eminent hand, not to think shirt of it, but give timely order for the calling a sufficient Force of the Nobility together, to oppose any evil designe they may have in hand; That in the mean time his Majesty had deputed the Under Chancellor, with some others of the Senate to go to the Crown-General, to know the meaning of their Confederation, and to perswade him to take better measures then he hath hitherto done, but the faid Commissioners having advice, that the Army had passed the Weifel, have put a stop to their intended journey; it is reported the Army will march directly towards Warfaw, and it is much feared, things may come to an open Rebellion, if not suddainly accommodated. Our Letters from Riga tell us, they daily expected there three Envoys from Mof-

all Rigor and Scucrity.

covy, who were already arrived at Plesco; That they are lent to leveral Princes of Christendom, 'to give themnotice, that the Czar intends n War against the Turks the next Spring.

Ratisbonne, Decemb. 11 This Dyet hath now gaken into their Debate, the muter of the Memorials of the Brandenburgh Ministers, lately given in to them, relating to the present Conjuncture, rel d'aib, ac pyrenengea answer to them; what the Dy.t will conclude hereupon, we must expect to hear, th ugh most of the Deputies seem not to approve the accurate to the rest of the Deputies seem not to approve the accurate to the rest of the Deputies seem not to approve the accurate to accurate the rest of the Deputies seem not to approve the accurate to accurate the rest of the Deputies seem not to approve the accurate to accurate the rest of the Deputies seem not to approve the accurate to the rest of as well as that presented by the French Envoye in the proceeding of his Electoral Highness, in the present War.

Notwithstanding all the endeavors that have been all paids of Death, and pan to poral, and dott used for the determining the differences which hereby harge them and en no of them, of and arise concerning some points in the Treaty, for I Eny wies in order the publick Security of the Empire, not any pro-4 to my cfly Com guels bath been now made in it for feveral Months is, flicers, and rogether, and many think, that after all, it will the grefument hardby come to any conclusion, by reason of the Heydelberg, Decemb. 17. The 15 instant the Marquis do Vaubrun, Envoye Extraordinary from his most Christian Majesty, having passed sone time at the Court of the Blector of Mayence, ar ited at Fredericksburgh, where our Elector at present 102 sides, of whom he had no sooner had Au sience but parted again for Stateard, to confer there with the Duke of Wirtenbergh; in the mean time the Marquis d' Aleau, likewife Envoye firm his moli Christian Majesty, and the Strur de Missis, Envoye from the Prince of Conde, continute fail at Manheym. On Sunday Fast the Elector of Bandanburgh was an Menta, to take leave of that E ctor, as also of the Bishop of Spier, his Coadjuster, by whom after having been very nobly Treated, his Electoral Highfiels of Brandenburgh reitlined to his Quarter again. The Imperial and Brandenburgh Troops are repassed the Mayh, over two Blidges made to that purpose at Cofficia, with intentions as they give our; to march towards Woffohaia, to seek Winter Quartes there, upon which it is said, the French Army under the Command of Monsieur Turanne; will likewise take that way, for the better security of the Bishop of Munster, in case the Con-sedorates should attempt any thing to his preju-

Motz, Decemb. 19. The Prince of Could being perfectly recovered of the Gout, it as we hear parted from Thionville, and hath passed the Mocsel at a Village called Lifet or Legar, between veldents and Bern Cassel; and is at present lodged with his Troops in the Gountrey of Honefruck.

Colugne, Decemb. 20. The Gonfederate Armies have at length quitted the Neighborhood of Ment?, and have repassed the Main, taking their march,