Hanover, July 27, N. S.

ON the 19th Instant M. Nischwitz had an Audience of the King, and complimented his Majesty upon his happy Arrival in this Country, on the Part of his Master his Highness Duke Christian Lewis, Administrator of Mecklenbourg. On the 22d the Baron de Ridefell, who was come hither upon the same Occasion on the Part of the Landgrave of Hesse Darmstadt, had his Audience of Leave of his Majesty, and is preparing to return to his Court. On the 23d, about Eight a-Clock in the Morning, the King, attended by my Lord Harrington, the Foreign Ministers, and several other Persons of Distinction, went to Wisenbrook Forest, near Celle, where the Peasants had brought into the Toils several wild Beasts; and his Majesty after the Diversion of shooting some wild Boars and Foxes, returned about Six in the Evening to Herenhausen. The same Day the Right Hon. the Earl of Rockingham arrived here from his Travels in Italy, and other Parts of Europe; and in the Evening waited on the King at Herenhausen, who received him very graciously; and on Monday the 25th, in the Evening, his Lordship took his Leave of his Majesty, and set out Yesterday Morning for the Hartz, from whence he intends to pass into France in his Return to England.

Admiralty Office, July 18, 1735.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the better Government of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice to all such Widows as aforesaid, whose Husbands died on or since the 30th of August, 1732, that Copies of the said Rules as Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford and Woolwich, and the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and KinSale; where they may be informed of all Particulars which entitle such Widows to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose: But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Esq; at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Court of Assistants for Management of the said Charity do hereby give Notice, that they will meet at the Admiralty Office on Tuesday the 9th of September, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, to receive the Claims of such Widows, as shall be qualified according to the said Rules and Orders.
