Dantzick, July 16, N. S.

WE see here the Points specified in the Univerſalia iſſued by King Auguſtus, which are to be deliberated upon in the enſuing Dietines of the Kingdom, and are as follow: 1. The Safety of the Republick both at Home and Abroad. 2. The Re-eſta bliſhment of the antient Form of the Republick, both with Regard to Civil and Military Affairs, particularly with Regard to the free Courſe of Juſtice. 3. The Augmentation of the Troops of the Crown according as it ſhall be judged neceſſary. 4. The Support and Security of the King's Perſon, and of the Domeſtick Tranquility of the Kingdom; to the End that when that Tranquility ſhall be firmly ſettled, the Ruſſians and Saxons may depart the Regalia. 5. The Means to recover the Regalia. 6. The neceſſary Meaſures to be taken for ſettling a proper Fund to make good the Deficiencies of the Royal Revenue. 7. The Means for putting the Artillery of the Crown, and every thing that relates to the Army, upon its antient Foot; as alſo to coin Money according to the antient Standard.

Berlin, July 26, N. S. The 19th Inſtant being fixed for his Pruſſian Maſtey's ſetting out on his Progreſs to Schwedt and Stettin, he accordingly left this Place at Nine a Clock that Morning. The only Perſon of Diſtinction who attended him is the Prince of Anhalt. General Borck, as Governor of Stettin, went thither ſome Days before, in order to receive his Maſtey. His Maſtey arrived at Schwedt in the Evening of the 19th, and ſtayed there till the 22d, when he proceeded to Stettin, where he was received that Night by General Borck. The next Day his Maſtey viewed the Fortifications of the Place. On the 24th the Troops there paſſed in Review before him. His Maſtey is expected back here this Evening. The Phylicians, who are ſtill anxious about his Maſtey's Health, have held of late ſeveral Conſultations upon that Subject, the Reſult of which has been tranſmitted to Dr. Boerhaave at Leyden for his Opinion and Advice.

Whitehall, July 29, 1735.

Whereas Samuel Prince, of Winſlade, near Baſingſtoke, in the County of Southampton, was, on Monday the 21ſt Inſtant, found guilty, upon the Coroner's Inqueſt, of the wilful Murder of his Wife, and is ſince fled from Juſtice: Her Maſtey, for the better diſcovering vering, and apprehending the said Samuel Prince, in order to the bringing him to Justice for so heinous a Crime, is graciously pleased to promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to such Person or Persons who shall discover the said Samuel Prince, so as he may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Samuel Prince above-mentioned is a lusty Man, of a fresh Complexion, stoops in the Shoulders, near Six Foot high, above Fifty Years of Age, has pretty long Legs, not large for his Height, and remarkable long flat Feet. He had on when he left his Dwelling-House, a Black Coat with close Sleeves buttoned, a Black Waistcoat, and Buck-Skin Breeches, a light Wig pretty much worn, and good Hat: Has a smooth Face for his Age, having never had the Small Pox.

Admiralty Office, July 18, 1735.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the better Government of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice to all such Widows as aforesaid, whose Husbands died on or since the 30th of August, 1732, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, as also with the Clerks of the Chetle at Deptford and Woolwich, and the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale; where they may be informed of all Particulars which entitle such Widows to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose: But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Esq; at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Court of Assistants for Management of the said Charity do hereby give Notice, that they will meet at the Admiralty Office on Tuesday the 9th of September, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, to receive the Claims of such Widows, as shall be qualified according to the said Rules and Orders.
