Petersbourg, July 16, N. S.

A few Days ago arrived a Courier from the Czarina's Minister at Constantinople, with an Account, that upon his Inquiry on what Service an Army of 80000 Crim-Tartars, newly drawn together and headed by their Cham, was to be employed, the Grand Vizier assured him, that those Tartars were not permitted by the Porte to take the Field with any Design to invade or to disturb the Peace of the Russian Provinces, but only to make a strong Diversion, to oblige Thamas Kouli Kan to divide his Forces. This Court however, to prevent all Surprize, is taking proper Measures for opposing the Tartars, in case they should (notwithstanding the Vizier's Promise) make any Attempt upon the Czarina's Dominions. In the mean while, an Express is arrived from Thamas Kouli Kan's Army, with the News that he had attack'd and totally defeated a numerous Body of Turks.
