Berlin, November 19, N. S.

Letters from Poland of the 9th Instant bring Advice, that the Diet of Warsaw broke up on the 7th without Success; and that the same Day King Augustus, with the Consent of the Grand Council, composed of the three Orders of the Republick, had disposed of the vacant Employments Civil and Military. The Review of the Ten Thousand Prussians, who are by this Time arrived at Magdebourg, Halberstadt, &c. is fixed for the 24th Instant, after which his Prussian Majesty will return to his Residence here, where he proposes to spend the whole Winter.

Hague, Nov. 25, N. S. The Assembly of the States of Holland remains fixed for Wednesday next, when they will very probably confirm their Resolution for a Lottery of Three Millions of Florins by Way of Annuities. The Place of Droffard of Breda, vacant by the Death of M. Catwyck, is not yet disposed of. The States General, who had resolved by a Majority of Votes to grant for the future a Subsistence to their Sea Officers who are not actually in Service, having resumed the said Proposition, it was entirely rejected by another Majority.

Dublin, November 8.

This Day his Majesty's most gracious Answer to the humble Address of the House of Commons of this Kingdom, was communicated to that House by Mr. Secretary Cary, from his Grace the Lord Lieutenant; and is as follows.

G E O R G E, R.

HIS Majesty received with great Satisfaction on the dutiful and loyal Address of the House of Commons, and their Professions of Zeal and Affection for his Person and Government, which his Majesty does not doubt, but they will make good, by granting such Supplies as may effectually provide for the Debt of the Nation, and the Support of the Government with Honour, and by applying themselves to whatever may contribute to the Happiness and Prosperity of Ireland; and they may be assured of his Majesty's Favour and Protection, and of his Majesty's doing all that depends on him, for promoting the Success of their Endeavours for so desirable an End.

The Linnen and Hempen Manufactures are of so great Importance to the Welfare and Prosperity of Ireland, that his Majesty sees with great Pleasure, that the House of Commons are determined to give their utmost Attention to the improving and extending these valuable Branches of Trade.

For which most gracious Answer, the House voted an Address of Thanks to his Majesty.
