Warsaw, November 23, N. S.

THE General of Lithuania Prince Radzivil is made Castellan of Trock, M. Chodkenick Palatin of Breicz, M. Plater Palatin of Livonia, and M. Stanislasoski General Director of the Posts in Polish Prussia, vacant by the Death of M. Thioly. It was thought the Council (which was assembled after the Diet broke up) would have ended on Monday last, but their Resolutions not being finally settled, it was adjourn'd to this Day, when it was farther adjourn'd till To-morrow. M. Keyserling, her Czariſh Majesty's Minister, has lately been thrice in Conference with the Commissaries of the Republick, to regulatè anew the Quarters for the Russian Troops which remain in this Country, and the Contributions to be raised for them in such a Manner that they may be the less burthenome to the Country; which is also one Reason for the Council's being continued till these Matters shall be entirely adjusted.

Hague, Dec. 6, N. S. Letters from Dantzick of the 25th of November relate, that Count Potocki, Palatin of Volhinia, having gone out of Konigsberg under Pretence of taking the Diversion of Hunting some Leagues distant from that Place, had retired into the Bishoprick of Warmia, whence it was thought he would proceed to Warsaw, to make his Submission to King Augustus. 'Tis advised from Vienna the 23d past, that General Traun was ordered to repair to the Imperial Army in Italy; and that a great Number of Recruits was sent thither, to fill up the Regiments of which that Army is composed,

Whitehall, Nov. 24, 1735;

Whereas it has been humbly represented to His Majesty, that on the 19th of this Instant November, the Warehouse of Mr. George Coade, and Company, at Lyme Regis in the County of Dorset, wherein was a great Quantity of Wool, was in the Night set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown, and burnt down, to the very great Loss of the Proprietors thereof; and it appearing by several Informations upon Oath, that the said Warehouse was wickedly and maliciously set on Fire: His Majesty, in order to discover the Authors of so heinous a Fact, is graciously pleased to promise His Pardon to any one of the said Incendiaries who shall make Discovery of his Accomplices in this wicked Contrivance, to the End that they may be brought to Justice.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement, we promise a Reward of Forty Pounds, to any Person or Persons who shall discover the said Offender or Offenders to us, so as he or they be legally convicted thereof.

George Coade.

R. Fowler Coade.

Whitehall, Dec. 2, 1735.

Whereas a Letter sign'd Honesty, Trusty, Fidelity, has been sent to William Lee, Esq; one of the Justices of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench, requiring him to lend them Fifty Pounds, and to lay it in a certain Place therein mentioned, and threatening, in Case of Non-compliance, to murder him: His Majesty, for the better Discovery and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing or sending the said Letter, is graciously pleased to promise his Pardon to any one of them that shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof: And as a further Encouragement to the making such Discovery, His Majesty is likewise pleased to promise a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, to any Person or Persons that shall discover the said Offender or Offenders; to be paid upon the Conviction of them or either of them.
