Warsaw, April 25, N. S.

A Letter has been written by the Primate to the States of the Kingdom, to exhort them to Union, to endeavour to establish Tranquillity at the approaching Diet of Pacification, and to take all Measures necessary for effectuating that Work. King Augustus has likewise written circular Letters to the same Purpose. King Stanislaus is still at Angersburg, whither this Court has sent him the necessary Passports which have been desired for his safe Passage through the Electorate of Saxony under the Name of the Count de Ligny; so that it is doubted here whether he will take Berlin in his Way. The Great Treasurer Ossolinsky will come hither as soon as King Stanislaus goes from Angersburg, and it is thought he will lay down his Charge in Favour of M. Mofinski, Treasurer of the Court, and who has had the Administration of the Treasury ever since the Coronation of King Augustus. Conferences have been lately held between the Senators of the Kingdom and Baron Keyserling, the Czarina's Minister, but were broke off some Days ago without any final Resolution being taken. Those Conferences are to be renewed some Days before the Meeting of the General Dyet: In the mean time, Baron Keyserling expects new Instructions from the Court of Russia. Here arrive from time to time such Polish Lords who had not acknowledged King Augustus: Hardly any Persons of Consequence remain to come in, but the fore-mentioned Great Treasurer of the Crown, and the Starost Jasielski, who was Marshal of the Confederation of Diskow.

Hague, May 8, N. S. The States of the Province of Holland will re-assemble Tomorrow, most of the Deputies being arrived. M. Borre de Chavane, the new Minister to the States General from the King of Sardinia, is arrived here, and the Count de Canales whom he succeeds, is preparing to set out from hence in a few Days on his Journey to Turin. The Swedish Minister presented lately a Memorial to the States General, inviting them to join their good Offices with those of the King his Master and other Protestant Powers, for disposing the Emperour and the French King to consent, that by the Treaty of Pacification now about to be made, the 4th Article of the Treaty of Ryfwick relating to Affairs of Religion, may be annull'd: To which Memorial their High Mightinesses have returned Answer, that they will send Orders to their Ministers residing at the proper Courts, to concur with those of other Protestant Powers in their Endeavours to get the said Article annull'd.
