

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday May 11. to Saturday May 15. 1736.

St. James's, May 15.

THE following Address of the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, has been presented to his Majesty by Thomas Lane, Esqr; Chairman, attended by Nathaniel Blackerby and Benjamin Burroughs, Esqrs. being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the County of Middlesex: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

May it please your most gracious Majesty,
Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Justices of the Peace for your County of Middlesex, in their General Quarter Sessions assembled, do with the utmost Joy and Gratitude, lay hold on this Occasion, to present their most humble and thankful Congratulations, for your Majesty's most affectionate and tender Concern for the Welfare of your People, manifested in the auspicious Marriage of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with his illustrious Consort; a Princess descended from Ancestors distinguished by their early Zeal in the Protestant Cause.

We consider this as an additional Proof of your Royal and paternal Care for the Protestant Interest, and which we hope will prove a lasting Barrier to these Nations against Poverty and arbitrary Power.

Give us Leave, great Sir, to assure your Majesty, of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and that we shall never be wanting to do what in us lies, towards making your Reign as easy and glorious to yourself, as it is happy and beneficial to all your Subjects.

Then they were introduced to the Queen, and presented the following Congratulation to her Majesty; who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the Queen.

May it please your Majesty,

With Hearts full of Gratitude we express our Pleasure and Satisfaction on the Marriage of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with the Princess Augusta of Saxe-Gotha, and are fully sensible of his Majesty's great Goodness, in thus strengthening the Protestant Religion.

It is, Madam, our hearty Wish, that one of his Majesty's Royal Family, inheriting your Majesty's Virtues, may sit upon the Throne of these Kingdoms to the End of Time.

After which they were introduced to their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and presented the following Congratulation to their Royal Highnesses, who were pleased to receive the same in a very obliging Manner.

To the Prince and Princess of Wales.

May it please your Royal Highnesses,

It is with the utmost Joy and Pleasure, we see a Marriage consummated between so great a Prince and so amiable a Princess, from whence we have the most agreeable Prospect.

May your Royal Highnesses be the Care of that kind and good Providence which hath made you happy in each other; and may that Happiness be as great to yourselves as it is promising to all his Majesty's Subjects.

( Price Four Pence. )

The