

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday May 29. to Tuesday June 1. 1736.

Whitehall, May 31.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, Guardian of the Kingdom of Great Britain, by his Grace the Duke of Dorset, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland: Which Addresses her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commonalty and Citizens of the City of Dublin.

AMIDST the publick Expressions of Joy, permit us, most Gracious Sovereign, with Hearts full of Duty and Loyalty, to congratulate your Majesty on the Marriage of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with the Princess Augusta, a Princess sprung from an illustrious House, from whom the Reformation found the earliest Protection.

Your Majesty has always consulted our Happiness in your just and mild Government, and securing to us the Blessings of Peace; but in this Instance, that of Posterity, who we hope, to latest Times, may be rul'd by Protestant Princes descended from this illustrious Pair.

And as we are truly sensible of the inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government, we most humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall in our several Stations, use our utmost Endeavours to make your Reign over us happy and easy to your Majesty.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be hereto affixed this Tenth Day of May, 1736.

To the King's most excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, do humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Marriage of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with her most Serene Highness the Princess of Saxegotha.

All your Majesty's Protestant Subjects must receive the greatest Satisfaction from the Choice of a Consort for his Royal Highness of such distinguish'd Merit, descended from a Line of Princes illustrious for their early and disinterested Appearance in Defence of the Protestant Religion, at a Time when Popery was supported by the greatest Powers in Europe.

From a Marriage thus auspiciously begun may reasonably be expected a Royal Issue, who like their illustrious Ancestors, will be always foremost in the Cause of Truth and Liberty.

These are Prospects which must be agreeable to all your Majesty's loyal Subjects, but in a more particular Manner to us whom his Royal Highness has honoured with his more immediate Protection, by condescending to accept the Office of Chancellor of this University; an Honour and Happiness for which we shall ever think ourselves obliged to return our most dutiful and most grateful Acknowledgements.

That God may therefore bless their Royal Highnesses with a numerous Issue, which shall continue down to latest Posterity the Blessings of your Majesty's most auspicious Reign, must be the Prayer of every honest Man within your Majesty's Dominions, but more especially of your Majesty's most dutiful and most loyal Subjects.

Berlin, June 2, N. S. The general and particular Reviews being all finished here, his Prussian Majesty proposes to leave this Place To-morrow: He goes first to Wusterhausen, from whence, after having visited some Estates in that Neighbourhood, he removes to Potzdam on Tuesday or Wednesday next; and on the 12th Instant he sets out on his Journey to Magdebourg. It has been said here for some Time, that his Prussian Majesty designs also to take this Summer a Journey to Prussia.

Hambourg, June 5, N. S. Last Saturday their Danish Majesties arrived at Altena about Six a-Clock in the Afternoon, accompanied by the Princess Charlotte, the Princess

