Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects of your Antient and Loyal Borough of Bridport, humbly crave Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the Marriage of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, with a Princess of the illustrious House of Saxe-Gotha; a House greatly distinguish'd (like your Majesty's) for their early Zeal and eminent Sufferings in the Protestant Cause; but now by the just Retribution of Providence, both are gloriously rewarded, the one with the Possession, the other with the Prospect of greater Dominions, than their Heroick Ancestors so bravely ventured, and so nobly lost.

In this auspicious Match, as by the lovely Person and amiable Qualities of the Princess, your Majesty, as a natural Parent, has shewn the kindest Condescension to the Wishes of his Royal Highness, so your Majesty, with your wonted Goodness, has dispos'd of the Kingdom's Heir, like the common Father of your People.

We heartily Pray that your Majesty and your Royal Consort may Live long and happy, and see a numerous Progeny spring from this illustrious Pair, who may transcribe the bright Perfections of their Royal Progenitors, and transmit them to latest Posterity.
