Berlin, July 17, N. S.

General Ginkel, the Dutch Minister at this Court, has obtained Leave of the States General to return to Holland. Letters of the 2d of June, O. S. which have been received here from Constantinople, give an Account, that the Ottoman Porte had had Advice, both by Sea and Land, of the Surrender of Asofph; but the last Dispatches from Petersburg, from whence that Piece of News might have come a great deal sooner, mention nothing of it; and only advise, that all the Conditions of Peace between the Turks and Kouli Kan were settled, one only excepted, which related to the Muscovites; Kouli Kan insisting that they be included in the Treaty, which the Turks peremptorily refuse, pretending the Difference in Religion makes it improper.

Hanover, July 22, N. S. On Wednesday last M. Borck, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Prussia, arrived here from England, and waited the next Day on his Majesty at Herenhausen. Yesterday about Eight in the Morning, the King, attended by the whole Court, and several of the Foreign Ministers, went to Wiffenbrook Forest near Celle, where his Majesty took the Diversion of spearing and shooting several wild Boars, and returned to Herenhausen about Four in the Afternoon.

Hanover, July 24, N. S. Yesterday about Seven in the Evening Prince William of Hesse arrived here, and immediately waited on his Majesty at Herenhausen. Count Ilenburg, Chambellan to the King of Denmark, who came hither on the Part of his Danish Majesty with a Compliment to the King, took his Audience of Leave last Night, and set out this Morning for Hambourg on his Return to Copenhagen.

Hague, July 24, N. S. There is yet no Day fixed for the Return of the States of Holland. M. Booy, who was lately appointed one of their Secretaries of State, took upon himself this Day the Exercise of that Office. Yesterday the Deputies of the States, in a Conference with Count Golowkin, communicated to that Minister the Letter they had received from the Grand Vizier, and their Answer to it. They likewise delivered to Mr. Trevor, Secretary to the British Embassy here, the Resolution they had taken upon that Subject. Letters received here a few Days since from Constantinople, say, that the Turks have demanded the Mediation of the Maritime Powers to negotiate a Peace with the Muscovites.

Whitehall, July 9, 1736.

Whereas a Letter, signed G. H. has been lately drop'd in the Court-yard of the Dwelling House of George Strode, of Parnbank, in the County of Dorset, Esq; one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said

County, directed to him the said George Strode, and threatening, that if he proceeded any farther in taxing Houses, he should be burned in his Bed, or that he should be killed if he came out of Doors: Her Majesty, in order to discover the Person or Persons concerned in writing, sending, or dropping the said Letter in the Court-yard of the said George Strode, is pleased to promise his Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who wrote it) who shall discover his, or her Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

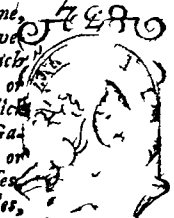

And as a farther Encouragement, the said George Strode does hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to the Person or Persons making such Discovery, upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.
