

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday September 11 to Tuesday September 14. 1736.

To the Intent that no Person may, through Ignorance of the Law, incur the Punishment enacted by the Act of Parliament herein after set forth, it is thought proper to insert the same at large in this Gazette.

Anno Nono Georgii II. Regis.

An Act to prevent the Lifting his Majesty's Subjects to serve as Soldiers without his Majesty's Licence.

WHereas divers of his Majesty's Subjects have been of late seduced to enlist themselves to serve as Soldiers under foreign Princes, States, or Potentates, which Practice is highly prejudicial to the Safety and Welfare of this Kingdom; for Remedy thereof, be it enacted by the King's most excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That if any Subject of the Crown of Great Britain, from and after the Twenty Fourth Day of June next, shall, within the Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, or from and after the 29th Day of September next, without the same, enlist or enter himself, or if any Person shall procure any Subject of his Majesty, his Heirs, or Successors, to enlist or enter himself, or hire or retain any Person being a Subject of his Majesty, his Heirs, or Successors, with an Intent to cause such Person to enlist or enter himself, or procure any Person being a Subject of his Majesty, his Heirs, or Successors, to go beyond the Seas, or embark with an Intent, and in order to be enlisted to serve any foreign Prince, State, or Potentate, as a Soldier, without Leave or Licence of his Majesty, his Heirs, or Successors, first had and obtained, for enlisting any of the Subjects of his Majesty, his Heirs, or Successors, to serve any such foreign Prince, State, or Potentate, as Soldiers, under the Sign Manual of his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, every such Person so offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, shall be taken, deemed, and adjudged to be guilty of Felony, and shall suffer Death as in Cases of Felony, without Benefit of Clergy.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That where any Offence against this Act shall be committed out of this Realm, the same may be alledged to be committed, and may be laid, enquired of, and tried, in any County in England.

Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Person so enlisted, or inveigled, or enticed to go beyond the Seas, in order to be enlisted as a Non-commissioned Officer, or private Soldier in any foreign Service, without his Majesty's Licence first had and obtained, as aforesaid, shall, within Fourteen Days after such Enlisting or Agreement to go beyond the Seas, voluntarily discover upon Oath, before any of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace or other civil Magistrate, the Person or Persons by whom he was so enlisted, inveigled, or enticed, as aforesaid, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said Offence, such Person or Persons so discovering, as aforesaid, shall be indemnified from the Penalty inflicted by this Act, and all other Penalties whatsoever on account of the said Offence.

Stockholm, Aug. 27. The Russian Frigate which not long since came hither from Peterborough with some fine Tapestry Hangings as a Present from her Czarish Majesty to the King and Queen of Sweden, sailed from hence a few Days ago: His Swedish Majesty gave a Thousand Rixdollars to the Captain and Messenger who brought the said Presents from the Czarina, which are valued at 20000 Roubles. It is said Count Tessin, who is about to leave the Court of Vienna, will have Orders when he does, to go to that of Saxony, in order to make a Compliment in their Swedish Majesties Names to the King and Queen of Poland.

Copenhagen, Sept. 4, N. S. The Ministers of the Council have received Orders for attending upon his Danish Majesty on the 7th at Friedensbourg. Count Lynar, the Danish Envoy at the Court of Sweden, is expected here in a few Days. His Danish Majesty has been pleased to give the Regiment of Infantry which was Lieutenant General Scholten's, to Colonel Remore, and M. Scholten comes into the Pay of Lieutenant General.

Dresden, Sept. 11, N. S. M. Berenldorff, the Danish Envoy to this Court, has had an Audience of the King, wherein he acknowledged his Majesty as King of Poland, on the Part of his Master the King of Denmark. The Prince Wienselts has by a Circular Letter, informed all the Officers of the Saxon Army, that he had quitted the Command of it. It is said he is to have a Pension of 2600 Crowns a Year, with the Title of Felt Marshal, and that in Case of War the Command will be again restored to him.

Berlin, Sept. 11, N. S. On Friday last the King of Prussia went from the Prince Royal's Country Seat to Potsdam, from whence his Majesty will remove To-morrow to Wusterhausen, whither the Queen is also to repair the next Day, in order to pass the Hunting Season as usual.

Whitehall, September 13.

Her Majesty has been pleased to order Letters Patent to pass the Great Seal of Great Britain, containing his Majesty's Grant of the Office or Place of Professor of the Civil Law, in the University of Oxford, unto Henry Brooke, Doctor of Law, in the Room and Place of Doctor James Bouchier, deceased.

Her Majesty has likewise been pleased to sign a Warrant authorizing and requiring Letters Patent to be passed under the Great Seal of his Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland, containing his Majesty's Grant unto William Gore, Clerk, and Master of Arts, of the Place and Dignity of Dean of the Metropolitan Church of St. Patrick Cathell, in his Majesty's said Kingdom of Ireland, the same being void by the Death of Doctor John Wetherby, late Dean thereof.

Her Majesty has been pleased to sign a Warrant authorizing and requiring Letters Patent to be passed under the Great Seal of his Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland, containing his Majesty's Grant unto Thomas Chamberlaine, Clerk, and Master of Arts, of the Place and Dignity of Dean of the Cathedral Church of St. Macartin Clogher, in his Majesty's said Kingdom of Ireland, the same being vacant by the Resignation of Edward Cresset, late Dean thereof.

His Majesty has been pleased to grant unto Thomas Howlett and Joseph Pratt, the Office of Master Bricklayer of all his Majesty's Works, Buildings, and Reparations in England (during Pleasure), in the Room of Thomas Churchill, deceased.

London, March 24, 1735-6.

Whereas by an Act made and passed in Parliament, in the Eighth Year of the Reign of his Majesty King George the Second, for the Application of the Rents and Profits of the Estates forfeited by the Attainder of James late Earl of Derwentwater, and Charles Radcliffe, it is enacted amongst other Things, That the Commissioners or Governors of his Majesty's Royal Hospital at Greenwich are to give six Months previous Notice in the London Gazette, of the Time and Place, when and where such Estates are intended to be Lett. Notice is therefore hereby given, by us the Commissioners of the said Hospital, that on Wednesday the 29th of September next ensuing, and every Wednesday and Friday following, will be Lett on Lease for Twenty One Years, or on Tack Notes for one Year, at Salters Hall in London, any of the Lead Mines, or Veins of Lead Oar within the Manor of Aldston-moor, in the County of Cumberland, or elsewhere, belonging to the said Estate, till the whole shall be Lett; and all Adventurers are desired to give in their Proposals in Writing, directed to William Corbett, Esq; at the Pay Office in Broad-street, London, or to Mess. Walton and Boag, at Ravensworth Castle near Durham, shewing what Vein or Mine, they, or each of them would take, whether on Lease or Tack Note, and at what Due or Share to the Hospital. Notice is also hereby given, that at the same Time and Place will be Lett upon Lease for Twenty One Years, all the Farms, Tythes, Collieries, and other Estates, of the late James Earl of Derwentwater, in the Counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, and Durham, as are now out of Lease; and all Persons willing to take any Part of the said Estates, are desired to give in their Proposals in Writing to the said Mr. Corbett, or Messieurs Walton and Boag; of whom Particulars may be had of all, or any Part of the said Estates as are now out of Lease.

Salters Hall, July 24, 1736,

Whereas it has been represented to us the Commissioners for Greenwich Hospital, that great Inconveniencies will attend the letting the Farms, Tythes, Collieries, Lead Mines, &c. belonging to the Derwentwater Estate, by obliging Tenants to go to London, to their great Loss and Expence; in order therefore to remedy the same, We do hereby give Notice, that those Persons who cannot conveniently attend at Salters Hall in London, according to a former Advertisement, and are desirous to take any of the said Farms, Tythes, Collieries, Lead Mines, &c. may apply to Mess. Walton and Boag, at the Three Kings in Newcastle upon Tyne, any Day during the next Assizes there, or on any Thursday or Saturday afterwards, from Eight in the Morning till Twelve, or from Two till Six a-Clock in the Afternoon, who will give them any Information relating to the same; and are also impowered to treat for letting any of the said Farms, Tythes, Lead Mines, &c. subject to our Confirmation.
