Whitehall, February 4.

THE following Address of the Governour and Company of Merchants Adventurers trading to Hambourg, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Harrington, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To His most Excellent Majesty,
Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Governour and Company of Merchants Adventurers of England, with great Humility beseech your Majesty, to permit us to return our sincere Acknowledgements for your Majesty's most gracious Concession in Favour of our Trade and Navigation, in exempting British Vessels from anchoring before your City of Stade, and allowing them to proceed directly to Hambourg, without Delay or Danger.

We are sensible that your Majesty has succeeded to an undoubted Right of detaining Ships for the Payment of the accustomed Duties, and that we are bound, equally with other Nations, to respect the Prerogative and ancient Laws of the Stader Toll, whatever may be the Inconveniencies thereof: But this shews only how much we are indulged by your Majesty, when you are pleased to wave your Electoral Rights in favour of your British Merchants.

Such signal Instances of your Majesty's Grace and Goodness, are a Demonstration of your tender and provident Care for the Preservation and Encouragement of the Trade and Navigation of Great Britain; and as these naturally flourish under such gracious Influences, we cannot but pray for the Continuance of so wise and gentle an Administration.

May the supreme Being be ever propitious to your Majesty, and make a long Reign as easy to your self as it must be happy to your People.

Hague, Feb. 8, N. S. This Morning came Advice, that the Prince of Orange with the Princess Royal his Consort, having passed over from Enkhuysen to Friesland, are arrived at Leeuwarden in good Health. All our Accounts from Italy agree, that the Spanish Forces have entirely evacuated Tuscany, and that the Imperialists are in Motion to take Possession of the chief Places of that Dutchy. And by Letters from Germany we learn, that the French Troops were preparing to withdraw from Triers, to yield up Philipsbourg and Fort Kehl to the Imperialists, and to take Possession of the Dutchies of Lorrain and Bar.

This is to give Notice, that the next Meeting of the Commissioners for building a Bridge cross the River Thames, from the New Palace Yard in the City of Westminster, to the opposite Shore in the County of Surry, is appointed to be held upon Wednesday the 16th of February Instant, at the Jerusalem Chamber in the Deanry, Westminster, at Ten a-Clock in the Forenoon.
