Rumb: 759

The London Gazette.

Publiched by Authority.

From Bundap February 24. to Chursdap February 27. 1672.

Whitby, Ftb. 20.

escape and get clear of them, for of late we find they make no diffinction, but take indifferently what ever comes to hand, Billanders as well as Colliers and others

Dartmonths Feb. 21. The Return of this Fown being lately haken by a Dutch Privateer in her way from Lisbons and having seven Dutch Men put on board her, and five of her own company left, it feems the English men took an opportunity-to make their new guefts, drunk, and to maftered them, and have brought the ship, with them, prifoners in her into Pool, where the is now (afe. A fmall Veflel of Ply-mouth coming from the coafts of Wales, taken by a Privateer, was yesterday forced into Bricklesham Peer by bad weather, where their company which were most Dutch, immediately left the Vessel and tun away: And we have advice of another Ship of this Town, which we gave for loft, and was indeed taken, being forced into fome Harbor in St. Georges Channel, with 16 Dutch on board her, after the

Lad spent b r Masts at Sea in very foul weather. Barnstaple, Feb. 21. Here are arrived the Amiry and Exchange, two Vessels of this place from Lifbon, being part of the Newfoundland Fleet, and we do not hear of any Ships belonging to this Town takensthough we much apprehended the loss of some of them in the Malaga Fleet: Munday last was driven by Storm into Clavelly, one of the Mallaga Fleet, taken sonte days before by a Dutch Caper, having 9 Dutch men, and three Englishi men on board; 'tis not yet known to what place the belongs Lynn, Feb. 21. Certain (mall Vessels come into this Port, tell ur, that on Wednesday last they faw the Deptford Ketch Engaged off Wintertonneffe, with a Flushinger of ten Guns, the Ketch having 20 fail of small Vessels under his Convoy, all which he secured, and after two hours dispute, forced the Caper to retire.

Weymouth, Feb. 22. The Coronation of London come in 14 days from Lisbon, put into Portland Road laft Thursday morning; fhe met with feveral Capers by the way; but being a Ship of 32 Guns, and carrying 80 Men, none of them durft venture to artempt ber.

Portfmouth. Feb. 23. Yesterday arrived here the Charles from Guiney and Barbados, he came in Company of four Barbados Men more, who he believes are put into Plymouth, he having loft them out at Sea.

Dover, Feb. 24. This Morning about eighta clock the Greyhound Fregat feeing a Dutch Privateer near the Coaft, immediately weighed and gave chafe to her, and was plainly perceived to gain much upon. her, fo that we doubt not but he will be able to give a good account of her before night.

Smirnd, Dec. 25. We have news here, that the Grand Signior is arrived at Adrianople, and that extraordinary preparations are making at, Conftanti-E fee from the floar two Billanders, nople to receive him there, with great magnificence e coming from the iNorth, and two upon which, tis like, that Trade will be revived in Durch Capers giving chafe to them, thele parts. There are upon this Coalt two Capers but the wind being not to favourable of Zealand, lying in wait for English and French to the Capers, we hope the Veffels will? Ships; the one carrying 24 Guns, the other 18 which Ships ; the one carrying 24 Guns, the other 18. which begets in us fome fear, for a small English Vessel, lately put to Sea from hence.

Turin, Jan. 28. Monfieur de Gaumont juft as he was upon the point of returning for Paris, recelved order hy a Courier from thence, to return to Genoa, to adjust fome things there for the entire actomplifhment of the Treaty of Peace, and then to pais to Florence. Mean time the Peace is, it feems, as good as made, and his most Christian Majesty. we are told, is ready to take our Troops into his fervice.

Vienna, Feb. 16. By a Courrier arrived laft night from Hungary, news is faid to be come, that the Imperial Army quartered about the River Teiffs or Tibifcus, have now lately given the Rebels an other defeat; the farther Confirmation and Particulars of which, we are to expect by the next.

Francfort, Feb. 16. From Vienna, we are tolds that the Empresse is with Child, to the great joy of that Court. It is reported here that a Treaty is ately concluded between Holland and Denmark: that the Elector of Brandenburgh was returned in perion to Bilefelt, having given firict Commands that no Infolencies, or Plunderings frould be permitted in the Countreys of Cologne and Munfter.

Cologne, Feb. 21. The 19 of this Month, about three a clock in the afternoon, we felt an Earthquake in this Town, and do hear, it was more lensible at Bonne, but it lasted not above a quarter of an hour in this place. The Duke of Bournonville ha ving publisht a Manifesto, wherein he not only gives notice, that the Emperor hath made him General over his Army, in lieu of the Count Montecuculi, whole indipolition obliges him to return to Vienna, but also admonishes under great penalties , all Military Officers, of what ever rank or degree, fer-ving the Elector of Cologne and the Biflop of Manfter, forthwith to withdraw from their Service, and to repair to that of the Emperors ; the faid Bifhopt of Munster is reported to have publisht a Countermanifelto, to invalidate the Authentickness and force of that Declaration, which, confidering this prefent Engagement of the Emperors, in his Private Car pacity, and not with the advice and confent of the States of the Empire, is concluded to be milapplyed, and of no force at all. We are informed, that the Forces of Monfieur Duras are now joyned to thole under the Mareshal de Turenne, who is thereby confiderably inforced in his ftrength and numbers, and more then able enough, to engage the Army of the Confederates, if they be for minded. Fliffingen, Feb. 24. We are here in great perplexity, finding our hopes in the Parliament of England are come to nothing. If we have not speedly a Peace, our condition will be very bad, both heres and especially in Holland, where all Provisions are very scarce and dear; befides the incredible Weight