Berlin, April 16, N. S. The Motions of some of his Prussian Majesty's Troops, on account of the Project supposed to have been formed by the Palatine Court with Respect to the Eventual Homage of the Inhabitants of Bergue and Juliers, though not countermanded, seem to be suspended, except that of Sonfelt's Dragoons, which is expected soon in the Neighbourhood of this Town, and after a few Days Halt is to proceed on their March towards Halberstadt.

Dresden, April 17, N. S. Major General Count Truchles, who is coming from Berlin in Quality of his Prussian Majesty's Envoy to this Court, and who it is said, is charged with his Prussian Majesty's Letter of Recognition to King Augustus, is expected to arrive here this Day. The Time for which a Cartel had been made between this Court and that of Berlin for the mutual delivering up of Deserters, being expired, Publication thereof has been made in the Saxon Army. Count Watsdorff, who some Years since resided in England as Minister of this Court, is now gone by Order, to that of Paris, to sell there the Effects of the late Count Hoim, which it is said will amount to a very considerable Sum.

Whitehall, March 31, 1737.

Whereas Information has been given on Oath, That on Tuesday the 15th Day of this Instant March, between the Hours of Seven and Eight of the Clock in the Evening, Jonathan Lintswait, of the Borough of Leicester, in the County of Leicester, Brazier, being on Horseback, in his Way from Melton Mowbray to the said Borough, was assaulted in a Place called Thrumaston Lane, in the Parish of Belgrade, in the said County, by three Persons on Horseback, one of whom seized him, and carrying him out of the Road into a Close adjoining to the said Highway, robbed him of the Sum of Twenty four Shillings, or thereabouts, his Horse Whip, and one Linen Handkerchief, and afterwards bound him Hand and Foot; and while the said Jonathan Lintswait lay bound, the said three Highwaymen robbed and bound several other Persons near that Place, and took from them in Goods and Money to the Value of Fourteen Pounds; For the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Robberies, his Majesty is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Whitehall, April 1, 1737.

Whereas about Six Months ago, a Paper was affixed to the House of Mr. Ridge, Keeper of the Forrest in the Isle of Wight, threatening, That if he should take away any Gun, or hurt any Man for killing Deer out of their own Grounds or Corn, his Horse would be shot under him, and his Habitation laid low about his Ears, and to remember the Walton Blacks, for there would rise Forty Men in Arms against him in a little time; And whereas several Deer have since been killed and destroyed in the said Forrest, and on Sunday the 6th of February last, about Twelve o' Clock at Night, a Gun loaded with Sluggs was discharged in at one of the Chamber Windows of the Dwelling House of the said Mr. Ridge, in which Chamber he was at that Time a Bed, with an Intent, as there is Reason to believe, to kill him, for that the Sluggs went through the Bed Curtains, and lodged in the Chimney-piece of the said Chamber: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in so heinous a Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a further Encouragement, His Majesty is also pleased to promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any one of them, or to any other Person or Persons, who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.
