From Saturday April 23. to Tuesday April 26. 1737.

By the Lords Justices General and General Governours of Ireland.

A P R O C L A M A T I O N.

Hu. Armach. Wyndham C. Hen. Boyle.

W Hereas his Majesty hath signified to us his Royal Pleasure, that the Parliament of this Kingdom, which now stands prorogued to Tuesday the Nineteenth Day of this Instant April, be further prorogued to Tuesday the Second Day of August next: We do therefore Publish and Declare, that the said Parliament be, and accordingly the said Parliament is, hereby further prorogued to Tuesday the Second Day of August next: Whereof the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament are to take Notice accordingly.

Given at his Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the Eleventh Day of April, 1737.

By their Excellencies Command,
Tho. Tickell.

GOD save the KING.

Madrid, April 15, N. S. On the 13th Instant their Catholick Majesties, with the rest of the Royal Family, arrived here from the Pardo, and intend to stay at the Buen Retiro till the 24th, when they are to set out for Aranjuez, as usual. The Masters of some French Tartanes having reported at Marseilles, and other Places on the Coasts of Provence and Languedoc, that a contagious Distemper was raging in the Principality of Catalonia, the Magistrates at Marseilles gave immediate Orders, that all Vessels that came from Spain should perform Quarantine, and pass through all the Formalities practised in Cases of a Plague. The Commander at Perpignan having been informed of the Measures that had been taken at Marseilles, thought proper on his Part to form a Line, by which he cut off all Sort of Communication with Spain by Land, as Marseilles had done by Sea. A Courier dispatched to Naples by this Court was the first who was refused Entrance into France, and was obliged to return back to Barcelona: Upon which the Captain General of Catalonia sent an Express hither to acquaint this Court with what had happened upon the Frontiers: And as proper Certificates have since been transmitted to the Governour of Perpignan, as well as to the chief Commanders in Languedoc and Provence, whereby it appears that neither Catalonia, nor any other Province in this Kingdom have been afflicted with any contagious Distemper, or any thing more than Colds occasioned by the extreme Dryness of the Weather, there is no Doubt but that this false Alarm will soon vanish, and that a free Communication will soon be opened again between these Provinces and those of France.

Dresden, April 29. The Universalia are sent to Poland for the assembling a great Council of the Senators of that Kingdom at Fraustadt on the 8th of July next, at which his Polish Majesty is to assist. Both the Emperor and the Czarina press the Departure of the Saxon Troops for Hungary, and though the Orders are already given for their being ready to march by the middle of next Month, yet it is believed they cannot begin their March till the latter End of it. We have received News here, that Count Munich was gone with 40,000 Men to besiege Oczakow; and that General Lacy, and the Prince of Hesse Hambourg, each with a different Body of Troops, are likewise marched to observe the Enemy and cover the Besiegers. Count Truchses, Major-General in the Russian Service, is arrived here, and had his Audience of the King on the 22d Instant; when he delivered to his Polish Majesty the King his Master's Letter of Recognition.

Whitehall,

Whitehall, April 26.

Sir John Norris, with the Squadron under his Command, viz. the Britannia, Burford, Captain, Pembroke, Defiance, Windfor, Swallow, Sunderland, Leopard, Poole, Deptford Store-ship, Looe Hospital-ship, and Griffin Fire-ship, having sailed from the Tagus the 5th Instant, arrived at St. Hellens Yesterday Morning.

Whitehall, April 8, 1737.

Whereas an anonymous Letter, directed to Miss Kitty Jones, was taken up on Saturday the 26th of March last, about Ten a-Clock in the Forenoon, in the Court-Yard before the House of Mr. John Edwards, near the Dock-Yard at Deptford in Kent, Uncle to the said Miss Jones, and with whom she dwells, requiring her, among other Things, to tell her said Uncle to lay Ten Guineas in a Place in the Yard before his Door, or in Failure thereof, threatening to set Fire to his House, and burn the Family in their Beds; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in so heinous a Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a farther Encouragement, I the said John Edwards, Messenger to his Majesty's Dock Yard in Deptford, do hereby promise to pay the Sum of Ten Guineas upon the Conviction of such Offender or Offenders, to such Person or Persons as shall be entitled thereto.

John Edwards.

Wine Licence Office, April 22, 1737.

All Persons owing or engaged for Arrears of Rent for Wine Licences, or whose Licences are expired, are hereby required to take Notice, that if they do not pay their said Arrears, and renew their said Licences with all Speed, they will be forthwith prosecuted for the same. And whereas his Majesty's Commissioners of Wine Licences have received certain Information of divers Persons presuming to retail Wine without Licence, and to whom Letters have been sent, advertizing them of the Penalties incurred thereby; These are also to give Notice, that unless such Persons do speedily apply themselves to the said Commissioners, the Laws in such Cases made and provided will be forthwith put in Execution.

Hand-in-Hand Fire-Office.

The Directors give Notice, That a General Meeting of the Members of the said Society will be held at their Office in Angel Court on Snow-hill, on Thursday the 12th of May next, by Three in the Afternoon; where all who have Insured are desired to be present.
