Hague, May 14, N. S.

THE States of the Province of Holland continue their Session, and their Deputies having had some Conferences with Commissioners from the several Colleges of Admiralty, it is expected they will soon come to a Resolution upon the Complaint made to them by the Town of Rotterdam, relating to the Duties on Goods collected there. The Convoy that is usually sent out to meet the East India Ships, is sailed from the Texel, those Ships being expected home in a few Days. Yesterday came Advice of the Death of the Duke of Courland. The Marquess de Fenelon is expected here To-morrow on his Return from the Court of France.

Whitehall, May 6, 1737.

Whereas the Town of Woodstock, in the County of Oxford, has been, within three Months past, set four Times on Fire, in the Night Time, and three Times within three Weeks, by some wicked Person or Persons unknown, with an Intention, as there is Reason to apprehend, by several Circumstances, to burn the whole Town: For the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in a Crime of so heinous a Nature, his Majesty is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a farther Encouragement to such Discovery, I do hereby promise, that whoever shall discover the Person or Persons concerned in setting the said Town on Fire, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, shall receive a Reward of One Hundred Guineas on such Conviction.
