Copenhagen, May 21, N.S.

HE Court removed from hence to Friedenburg on the 16th Instant. The Ordinance for regulating Quarantain to be performed by all Ships bound to this Country from the Coast of Prussia is now published. By the Advices from Dantzick and those Parts, it appears that Milery, Famine and Fevers carry off great Numbers of People in Silefia and Poland, and even at Dantzick, and upon the Coast of Prussia, but that there is not any Plague or infectious Diftemper in any of those Countries.

Hague, May 28, N. S. There is as yet no Day fixed for the Re-assembly of the States of Holland. At their last Assembly a Proposition was made on their Part to the States General, for declaring for the suture, all Military Officers who shall embrace the Roman Catholick Religion, or who shall marry Roman Catholick Women, incapable of serving the State; which Proposition in all Probability will pass into a Law, seeing the great Inconveniences that refult from the Officers changing their Religion, or inter-marrying with Roman Catholick Women. Several Conferences have lately been held between the Deputies of the States, and the Imperial and French Ministers, upon the Succession of Bergues and Juliers. The last Letters from Vienna do not bring any Ac-count of the Declaration of War against the Turks, but that the Manisesto was ready to be published; and that every Thing was preparing upon the Frontiers for beginning the Operations.

Whitehall, May 20. The Baron de Sohlenthal, Plenipotentiary from the King of Denmark, has represented, That his Master observing that there are contagious Distempers in Poland, which are spread to Dantzick, and other Towns and Ports on the Baltick, has thought fit, for presenting such Insection being brought into his venting such Insection being brought into his Dominions, to issue an Ordinance, dated at Friedericksberg the 13th Instant, N. S. prescribing certain Rules for all Ships sailing from those Parts, with their Crews, Goods, and Passengers, how they are to behave in coming from Places suspected of Contagion to the Coast of Denmark. The said Minister has given Notice of these Orders published in Denmark, that the British Subjects who trade in the Baltick may take care to have Passes of Health, and to perform such other Matters as are directed by the aforesaid Ordinance.
