Petersbourg, July 2; N. S.

THE last Accounts this Court has received from Felt Marshal Munich were dated the 15th past; at that Time the Russian Troops had not yet passed the River Bog, except a Party of Saporogue and Don Cossacks, which swam cross the same; to chase a Body of Tartars that appeared on the other Side but retired at their Approach; Count Munich does not know if those Tartars are retired towards Bender or Oczakow. A Russian Enginier, disguised as a Tartar, who had found Means to get into Oczakow; where he stayed ten Days, is returned to the Army, and has given Felt Marshal Munich an exact Plan of the Place, which will be of great Service to him when he comes to form the Siege of the Town. This Court expects to hear in eight Days, that Count Munich has passed the Bog and arrived before Oczakow, unless the Turks advance and hazard a Battle to prevent the Siege, which may possibly happen, since this Court is informed that a Seraskier and seven Bashas have passed the Danube with about 70,000 Men. As Felt Marshal Munich assures her Majesty that the Troops under his Command are in perfect Health, and that he has great Plenty of Provisions and Ammunition, this Ministry seem not to doubt, but that he will be able to give a good Account of the Turks in case they come to an Engagement. The Courier reports, that he met not far from the Bog, a Body of 8000 Russians, with a great Quantity of Artillery and Provisions that were marching to join Count Munich. We have Advices here, that Baron Tahlman, the Emperor's Ambassadour at the Ottoman Porte, and the Turkish Plenipotentiary; had passed the Niester in order to go to Niemerof; but being informed that a Party of Heydamaguís (who are Polish Banditi) had placed themselves on the Road with a Design to rob them, they had been obliged to return to Soroka, where they would wait till those Vagabonds were retired, or till the Crown General of Poland should send them a Guard to convoy them to Niemerof.
