Vienna, August 21.

Yesterday arrived an Express from Field Marshal Count Seckendorff, with an Account, that General Count Kvenhuller, with the Body of Forces he commands, came before Widdin on the 8th Instant, and invested it in such a Manner, that no Succours can be conveyed into it. Count Seckendorff continued with the Imperial Army at Nissa the 15th Instant; waiting till that Place should be well provided with every thing necessary for its Defence; which done, it was not doubted he would move towards Widdin. It is rumoured, that there has been another Action between the Troops commanded by the Prince of Hildbourghaufen and the Turks, and that the latter were repulsed with considerable Loss: Of which we wait the Confirmation.

Admiralty Office, August 6, 1737.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the better Government of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice to all such Widows as aforesaid, whose Husbands died on or since the 30th of August, 1732, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford and Woolwich, and the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinfales, where they may be informed of all Particulars which entitle such Widows to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose: But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Esq; at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Court of Assistants for managing the said Charity do hereby give Notice, that they will meet at the Admiralty Office on Tuesday the 13th of September next, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, to receive the Claims of such Widows, as shall be qualified according to the said Rules and Orders.

Navy Office, August 24, 1737.

These are to give Notice, That the Two Months Wages in Six, due to his Majesty's Ship under-mentioned, to the Time against her Name express'd, will be paid at the Pay Office in Broad-street on Tuesday the 6th of next Month, to the Seimens lawfull Attornies, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament on that Behalf, viz.
