St. James's, August 30. .

♥HIS Day the Reverend Dr. Wilcox, Vice-Chancellor of the Univerfity of Cambridge, attended by feveral Heads of Houses, Doctors in the several Faculties, Masters of Arts, and other Members of that learned Body, waited on his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales in their Formalities; and being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Baltimore, Lord of the Bed Chamber in Waiting to his Royal Highness, Mr. Vice-Chancellor made their Compliments in the following Speech.

May it please your Royal Highness,

TO permit the University of Cambridge to express their Joy upon the safe and happy Delivery of your Royal Consort, and the Birth of a Princess

This gives us a pleasing Prospect that the present Flappiness will be perpetuated to this Nation in a Pace of Princes descended from your R yal Highness.

And how greatly is the Pleasure increased, when your Koyal Highness is possessed of the most excellent and endearing Virtues, and bleffed in a Confort diffinguished by all the Graces and Accomplishments that can adorn a Princess!

May you enjoy the greatest Happiness, and be the glorious Instrument of conveying Hap-pinels to the most distant Ages.

To which his Royal Highness was pleased to return this Answer.

Gentlemen,

IT is very agreeable to me to fee the Joy you have on this Encrease of the King's Family.

I'll try at all Times to deserve the Affection you show me, by my hearty Wishes for the W sfare of your learned Body, and for the Alvancement of Learning.

They all had the Honour to kis his Royal Highness's Hand.

And had afterwards an Entertainment given them.

When these Gentlemen made their Compliments to her Majesty on Monday last, She was pleafed to return them a most gracious Answer; of which (through a Mistake) no Note was taken in the Gazette of Tuelday last.

Hampton Court, September 1.
The following Address of the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of Dunheved, otherwise Launceston, in the County of Corn-wall, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir William Irby, one of their Representatives in Parliament; being introduced by the Earl of Pembroke, Groom of the Stole to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE the Mayor and Commonalty of the Borough of Dunheved, otherwise Launceston, in the County of Cornwall, humbly beg I eave to congratulate your Majesty on the fafe Delivery of her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, and the Birth of a Princess.

The present Addition to your Royal Family must afford the utmost Satisfaction to all who have a dutiful and affectionate Regard for your Royal Person, and are truly sensible of the great Happiness that this Nation enjoys under your Majesty's most auspicious Government

That your Majesty's Reign over us may be long and happy; and that the same may be strengthned by a numerous Addition of your Majesty's most illustrious l'amily, are the Prayers of your ever dutiful and loyal Sub-

Petersbourg, August 6. On the 30th past arrived here Colonel Keyserling from Oczakow, with the Particulars of the taking of that Place; the most remarkable of which, as related by him, are in Substance, That Felt Marshal Munich came before it the 29th of June, O.S. and found the Turks had made Intrenchments at the several Avenues to it, which he attacked and carried; then approached within half Cannon Shot of the Town, and during his Approach, bombarded the Place with such Success, that it was on Fire in several Places, being for the most Part built of Wood; and two Magazines of Powder blowing up, destroyed a great Number of the Inhabitants, the Town being very full of People, with a strong Garrison consisting of about 20000 Janissaries and Spahis. Count Munich seeing the Town on Fire. ordered it to be attacked in three feveral Places, more to prevent their putting out the Fire than expecting to take the Place by Storm, without having first made a Breach.

and the Hussars perceiving that several Thousand Men of the Garrison were issuing out of the Gate towards the Black Sea, they dismounted and attacked the Turks Sword in Hand fo furiously, that they forced them back, and followed them Pell-mell into the Town, crying out in their Language, Nasky, Nasky, which fignifies the Place is ours. This was no sooner known to Felt Marshal Munich, (who had then with him an Officer from the Garrison, who had demanded a Suspension of Arms for 24 Hours, which was refused) than he sent 6000 Regular Troops to affish the Cossacks and Hussars, who got also into the Town, and cut to pieces all that opposed them: Whilst this Consusion lasted, those Troops which had made a Feint to attack the Walls, actually scaled the same and got in, but not without great Loss, there being about 1000 Men killed, among whom are one Colonel, two Lieutenant Colonels, two Majors, and 150 other Officers; and about 3000 wounded; of which Number are Lieutenant General Keith, Lieutenant General Baron Lowendahl, and Majors General Araktsheoff, Krushoff, and Backmotoff, besides several other Officers of less Distinction. Felt Marshal Munich had a Horse killed under him, as had also the Prince of Brunswick, who accompanied him every where and had a Page killed by his Side. The Turks on their Side, had near 17000 military Men, and about the same Number of Inhabitants killed, no Quarter being given at the Time the Town was taken, which was on the 2d of July, O.S. There are about 3500 Turkish Prisoners, which are all that remain of the Garrison that were not killed or drowned; among the Captives is the Seraskier, named Jiagia; who is a Bashaw of three Horle Tails, and was Master of the Horse to the late Sultan, and Son in Law to the late Grand Vizier Ali. The Bashaw of Oczakow is also taken Prisoner: Five other Bashaws of two Horse Tails were killed. The Booty taken on this Occasion is very considerable, and would have been much more so, if several valuable Things had not been confumed by the Fire. In the Place were found 82 Brass, and four Iron Cannon, feven Mortars, eleven Horse Tails, and a very great Quantity of Small Arms. Before Colonel Keyserling lest the Place they had already buried 8000 Turks that were killed in the Streets; and the Walls and Ditches were yet covered with dead Bodies, that caused such a noisome Stench, that Felt Marshal Munich was obliged to march 20 Versts off with his Army, leaving only a Regiment of Horse and one of Foot, to

During this great Disorder, the Don Cossaks and the Hussers perceiving that several Thousand Men of the Garrison were issuing out of the Gate towards the Black Sea, they dismounted and attacked the Turks Sword in Hand so furiously, that they forced them back, and followed them Pell-mell into the Town, crying out in their Language, Nasky; Nasky, which signifies the Place is ours. Berlin, Sept. 3, N. S. The Night before last a Courier arrived at this Court, with an Account of the Progress of the Czarina's Arms in the Crimea, fince Felt Marshal Lacy, with the Army under his Command, had entred into that Country: The Substance of which is, That they had burned or destroyed near One thousand Villages, plundered one Town, where they had found a great Booty; and that in several Skirmishes which they had had with the Turks and Tartars, the Muscovites had constantly beaten them and obliged them to retire.

Dresden, Sept. 4, N. S. M. Keyserling, the Russian Minister, has received Letters from Warlaw, with the News of Count Munich's having beaten the Turks near Bender and taken that Place; though at the same Time he says that he has had no News directly from Count Munich, so that he cannot assure the Truth of it. By Letters arrived Yesterday from Poland we have an Account, that the Conferences at Niemerort would foon begin, the Turkish Plenipotentiaries having received Orders to open the Congress notwithstanding the Rupture with the Emperor, upon the Declaration that his Imperial Majesty has made, That though he had taken up Arms to comply with the Defire of the Czarina, yet he still persists in the same Resolution as before to employ his good Offices to establish Peace between the Porte and Russia. Other Letters from Niemeross of the 15th past, mention the Grand Vizier's being deposed; but that News seems doubtful.
