St. James's, August 30.

THIS Day the Reverend Dr. Wilcox, Vice-Chancellor of the University of Cambridge,. attended by several Heads of Houses, Doctors in the several Faculties, Masters of Arts, and other Members of that learned Body, waited on his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales in their Formalities; and being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Baltimore, Lord of the Bed Chamber in Waiting to his Royal Highness, Mr. Vice-Chancellor made their Compliments in the following Speech.

May it please your Royal Highness,

TO permit the University of Cambridge to exprefs their Joy upon the safe and happy Delivery of your Royal Confort, and the Birth of a Princess

This gives us a pleasing Prospect that the present Happiness will be perpetuated to this Nation in a Race of Princes descended from your Royal Highness.

And how greatly is the Pleasure increased, when your Royal Highness is possessed of the most excellent and endearing Virtues, and blessed in a Consort distinguished by all the Graces and Accomplishments that can adorn a Princess!

May you enjoy the greatest Happiness, and be the glorious Instrument of conveying Happiness to the most distant Ages.

To which his Royal Highness was pleased to return this Answer.

Gentlemen,

IT is very agreeable to me to see the Joy you have on this Encreafe of the King's Family.

I'll try at all Times to deserve the Affection you shew me, by my hearty Wishes for the Welfare of your learned Body, and for the Advancement of Learning.

They all had the Honour to kifs his Royal Highness's Hand.

And had afterwards an Entertainment given them.

When thefe Gentlemen made their Compliments to her Majesty on Monday last, She was pleased to return them a most gracious Answer; of which (through a Mistake) no Notice was taken in the Gazette of Tuesday last.

The prefent Addition to your Royal Family muft afford the utmoft Satisfaction to all who have a dutiful and affectionate Regard for your Royal Perfon, and are truly fenfible of the great Happinefs that this Nation enjoys under your Majesty's moft aufpicious Government.

That your Majesty's Reign over us may be long and happy; and that the fame may be ftrengthned by a numerous Addition of your Majesty's moft illuftrious Family, are the Prayers of your ever dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Petersbourg, August 6. On the 30th paft arrived here Colonel Keyferling from Oczakow, with the Particulars of the taking of that Place; the moft remarkable of which, as related by him, are in Subftance, That Felt Marfhal Munich came before it the 29th of June, O. S. and found the Turks had made Intrenchments at the feveral Avenues to it, which he attacked and carried; then approached within half Cannon Shot of the Town, and during his Approach, bombarded the Place with fuch Succefs; that it was on Fire in feveral Places, being for the moft Part built of Wood; and two Magazines of Powder blowing up, deftroyed a great Number of the Inhabitants, the Town being very full of People, with a ftrong Garrifon confifting of about 20000 Janiffaries and Spahis. Count Munich feeing the Town on Fire, ordered it to be attacked in three feveral Places, more to prevent their putting out the Fire than expecting to take the Place by Storm, without having firft made a Breach.
