Petersbourg, August 13.

THE last Letters from the Congress at Niemeroff were dated the 26th of July, at which Time the Plenipotentiaries had already made a Regulation as usual concerning their Servants Behaviour, but they had not yet begun their Conferences in Form. The last Accounts this Court has received from Felt Marshal Munich, are dated the 22d of July; at the Departure of the Courier, Count Munich was with his Army about 60 Versts from Oczakow, on the Banks of the River Bog, not being able to proceed yet towards Bender, because the Tartars had destroyed all the Forage between the Niefter and the Bog. This Morning the great Guns of the Citadel and Admiralty were fired on Account of the great Advantages her Czars Majesty's Troops have had this Campaign over the Tartars of Crimea. On the 11th Instant a Courier arrived from Felt Marshal Lacy, giving an Account that the Army under his Command had repassed the Gniloe More, in order to return into their former Quarters, not being able to subsist any longer in the Crimea, which they had entirely laid waste wherever they passed. Last Monday a Woman was beheaded, and two Men burnt alive here, being convicted of having set a House on Fire which occasioned the great Conflagration we had last in this Town.

Petersbourg, Aug. 16. It is advised from Peterhoff, where the Czarina has her Court, that Felt Marshal Lacy had actually repassed the Gniloe More with his Army, after having entirely destroyed the greatest Part of the open Country of the Crimea. They add, that three Turkish Men of War, and fourteen Gallies, had prevented the Russian Flotilla from ravaging the Sea Coast of Kertch and Kassa; and that the Flotilla had suffered very much by a Storm. Last Saturday Night a Courier arrived at Peterhoff with Letters from Niemeroff, dated the 2d Instant, by which the Czarina is informed, that there had been great Disturbances at Constantinople, to appease which, several great Men had been put to Death, and others banished; that the Grand Vizier is deposed and sent to the Island of Negropont, but his Estates were not taken from him; his Kiahaja was strangled, as was also the Kissler Aga, the Grand Signior's chief Favourite. The Seraskier of Bender is made Grand Vizier; he is a Son of a late Grand Vizier who was killed in the last Persian War, and a very enterprising Man.

Vienna, Aug. 31, N. S. A Major arrived two Days ago from Marshal Seckendorff, who was still with Part of his Army near Nissa. It is reported now that the Siege of Widdin will be laid aside for this Year, instead of which it is said the Marshal is to turn at once and come into Bosnia, to make the Siege of Zwornick jointly with Prince Hildburghausen. The Turks have found Means already to throw a Succour of 4000 Men into the Town of Widdin, though it is in a manner blocked up by the Generals Kevenhuller and Wallis. We have confirmed Advice of the deposing of the Grand Vizier. The Name of his Successor is Mullan Ogli, who was formerly Bashaw of Bosnia, and is said to be a great Warrior, a good Friend of Bonneval's, whom he has already made a Bashaw of Three Tails, and it is assured they are both already at the Army.

Vienna, Sept. 4, N. S. Letters from the Imperial Army relate, that Count Seckendorff had ordered Count Marully, who commands at Belgrade, to provide 40000 Rations of Bread, 20000 Rations of Oats, for 14 Days together, and 3000 Waggons at Zabatz upon the River Save; it is said that Count Kevenhuller and Count Wallis will keep Widdin blockaded, and that General Seckendorff and Prince Hildburghausen will make the Siege of Zwornick in Bosnia, and endeavour to subdue that Province entirely, in order to procure Winter Quarters there for the greatest Part of the Army.
