

And we do hereby declare, that all the aforesaid Foreign Coins, being standing Weight, are to pass, and are to be paid and received at the Rates herein above mentioned; and that any such Coins not weighing down the Scales in the Weighing thereof, is not to be any Cause for the Refusal thereof at the Rates herein above mentioned: As also, that any Person receiving any Money, shall receive by what Side of the Scale he pleases, if he uses those of the Payer; and if he uses his own, then he is to receive by which Side the Payer shall think fit to direct.

And it is hereby declared, that the Weights now in Use in this Kingdom, and which are agreeable to the Standard remaining with the Clerk of the Council, the Chief Baron of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer, and the Receiver General of this Kingdom, and no other, except as herein after mentioned, shall continue to be used for weighing the several Sorts of Coin abovementioned, as formerly.

And for the better ascertaining the Weight of the said Coins, we have directed one Weight of half a Grain, and one Weight of one Quarter of a Grain, to be exactly made by William Archdall of the City of Dublin, Assay-Master; and that the Standards of such Weights be lodged where the Standards of the other Weights now in Use are kept, there to remain, to the End that all Differences that shall happen about the said Weights, may be either determined or prevented.

And in Case any Person or Persons shall either Pay or Receive any of the said Coins by any other Weights than such as shall be agreeable to the said Standards, they are to be proceeded against according to Law, as Keepers and Users of false and unlawful Weights.

And we do hereby strictly Charge and Command, that no Person, except the said William Archdall, do presume to make, adjust, or sell any of the said Money Weights to be used in this Kingdom, for the future, upon Pain of being proceeded against with the utmost Severity.
