Petersbourg, October 1.

AST Sunday arrived here from Hungary, but laft from Niemerow, Baron Taube, with Letters from the Ruffian Plenipotentiaries dated the rth of September. That Day the Turkilh Dragoman, who had been fent to the Grand Vizier for new Orders, returned to the Congreß. What Inftructions he has brought, is not publickly known yet. The Return to Niemerow was foon expected, of one of the three Turkilh Plenipotentiaries, who fet out from thence fome Time ago, to be prefent at a Divan which was to be held at Conftantinople. It is certain that Felt Marfhal Munich is returning with his Army to the Ukraine, and by the laft Advices from the Borders, he was within 80 Verfts of Parevolotchia.

Dresden, Oct. 23, N.S. By a Letter from Uffitza, we have Advice that Felt Marshal Seckendorff, foon after his Arrival before that Place, ordered an Aslault to be made in which the Imperialists were repulsed; but the next Day, being the 2d of October, another Difpolition being made for a fresh Aflault, the Garrison capitulated on the fame Conditions as that of Nissa did, viz. That they and the Inhabitants fhould be allowed to march out with their Arms, Goods, Wives and Children, Servants and Slaves, Chriftians excepted. That the Artillery and all manner of Stores belonging to the Sultan should be delivered up, for the Use of his Imperial Majesty; and that the Garri-fon, &c. should be conducted fase to Vicegrad on the River Drina. During the Siege, the Lofs on the Side of the Imperialists was but 158 Men; among them three Lieutenants kill'd, four Captains and three Lieutenants wounded. Among the wounded were alfo, Major Kuchler, an Ingenier, the Prince of Waldeck, Lieutenant Felt Marshal Diemar who was Shot in the Shoulder, and Baron Oynhausen a Major in the Saxon Troops; young Count Kirchberg, who was a Captain in the Regiment of Saxe Eisenach, was killed. This Letter adds, that Dispositions were making for putting the Troops into Winter Quarters, and that it was believed the Saxons would have theirs affigned them in Upper Hungary.

Hague, Nov. 1. Letters from Vienna advife, that General Diemar is not dead, but on the contrary out of Danger, his Wound not having proved fo bad as was at firft imagined. The Prince of Orange and the Princels Royal are expected here next Month, in their Way to Leuwarden. The Prince has repealed a Decree for eftablifhing at Breda a Tax upon Burials; to the great Satisfaction of the Inhabitants.
