

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday January 3. to Saturday January 7. 1737.

Whitehall, January 7.

THE humble Address of the Lord-Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin: And also that of the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, having been transmitted by his Grace the Duke of Devonshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have by him been presented to his Majesty; who was pleased to receive them very graciously.

Vienna, Jan. 1, N. S. Two Days ago arrived here a Muscovite Courier, who brought a Plan of Operations for the next Campaign, which has been examined this Morning in a great Council held in the Emperor's Presence, at which the Grand Duke assisted; and a Courier is to be sent in a Day or two to Petersbourg with the Result of it. The Empress Amelia having been some Days indisposed, found herself better on Saturday last; grew worse the next Day, and was in a very dangerous State on Monday last; but being let Blood a third Time, she is now thought to be quite out of Danger.

Dresden, Jan. 1, N. S. This Day an Agreement of Marriage between the Princess Royal the King's eldest Daughter, and Don Carlos, was declared, and the Court appeared in great Splendor on this Occasion. This Affair has been negotiated at Vienna, and Ambassadors are soon expected here to ask her in Form in Marriage for Don Carlos; and it is thought that the Marriage will be made by Procurator here.

Dresden, Jan. 8, N. S. It is said that M. Fuenclara, the Spanish Ambassadour at Vienna, will be the Person that will be sent hither to espouse the Princess Royal by Proxy in Don Carlos's Name; but the Time is not yet fixed, though M. Fuenclara is soon expected here, and it is generally said she will be conducted by that Ambassador after the Marriage to Naples through Tirol; though some say the Duke of Liria will be sent to meet her at Trent, and to conduct her the rest of the Way.

Hambourg, Jan. 10. N. S. The Winter is very severe, and it freezes so hard, that not only Sledges, but all Sorts of Carriages, with Merchants Goods, pass over the Elbe, upon the Ice, to Harburg and other Places. Last Wednesday died, after a lingering and painful Distemper, in an advanced Age, Lieutenant-General Albedyl, Commandant of this City. Some Hours before his Death, when he was past all Hopes of Recovery, an Express was dispatch'd to his eldest Son, his Britannick Majesty's Privy-Counsellor of the Finances at Hanover, who is expected here this Evening.

Hague, Jan. 14. N. S. The Marriage of Don Carlos with the Princess of Poland or Saxony, has been notified to the States, by a Letter from the King of Poland, deliver'd to them Yesterday by M. Desbrosses his Envoy, who has been complimented thereupon this Morning by their Agent. The States of Holland will begin their Assembly To-morrow; the greatest Part of their Deputies are already in Town, whom Count Uhlfeldt is soliciting very hard, to obtain their Consent for the Loan demanded by the Emperor.

Whitehall, January 6. 1737.

Whereas by an Inquisition taken at Fontmel Magna, in the County of Dorset, on the 18th Day of December last past, before one of the Coroners of the said County, it has been found, That in the Night between Thursday and Friday the 15th and 16th Days of the said Month of December, as John Tothervill was going from his House in Fontmel Magna aforesaid, to West Lodge in the Parish of Iwerne Minster, in the said County, he was assaulted by a Person or Persons unknown, who, with a large Stick, or some other weighty Weapon or Weapons, struck him on the Head several Blows, where-

