Petersbourg, February 7.

General Botta, and two of the Emperor's Counsellors of War, are daily expected here from Vienna. They are sent to concert Measures with this Court for the Operations of the next Campaign, and to endeavour to persuade the Czarina to send a considerable Body of her Troops to Walachia, by the Way of Poland; which it is thought this Court will not consent to do, her Majesty not being willing to give the Poles any just Cause of Complaint. It is said, that lit Cafe a Peace is not made this Spring, or at least before the Opening of the Campaign, that Felt Marshal Munich is to march, as soon as the Season will permit, to Oczakow, and from thence, either to Bielgorod on the Dniester, or to Bender on the same River; and Felt Marshal Lacy is to return with his Army to the Crimea, and begin his Operations by the Siege of a little Place three Wersts from Kersch, called Genicula, where there is a good Harbour. The 3d Instant being the Anniversary of the Czarina's Name Day, all the Foreign Ministers and Russian Nobility went in the Morning to make their Compliments to her Majesty, and the Foreign Ministers were invited to dine at Court. In the Evening there was a Ball; and the Town was finely illuminated.

Vienna, Feb. 26, N. S. Count Neuperg is not yet yet set out for Temeswaer. There has been a little Action in Bosnia upon the River Drina near Ratska, between the Rascians and a Body of Turks, who were building some Ships upon that River. It is said that the latter have lost 2 or 300 Men, and that the Ships have been burnt.

Dresden, March 5, N. S. The Count de Fuenclara arrived here from Vienna the 27th of last Month, with the Character of Ambassadour from Spain and Naples. This Court have been employed ever since his Arrival to fix the Time for the Marriage, which the Ambassadour desired should be next Month, because of the unhealthy Traveling in the Heat of the Summer in Italy, and especially about Naples; however, the King has prevailed upon him, as it is said, to consent to defer it till the Beginning of May.

Hague, March 11, N. S. We have Advice by our last Letters from Vienna, that M. Hamel Bruyninx, Minister of the States General at that Court, was dead there after a long Illness. The States of Holland are to meet To-morrow.

Whitehall, March 4.

His Majesty has been pleased to constitute and appoint Lewis Morris, Sen. Esq; to be Captain General and Governour in Chief in and over the Province of Nova Cæsarea, or New Jersey in America, in the Room of the Right Honourable John Lord De Lawarr.

His Majesty has been pleased to grant unto George Clark, Jun. Esq; the Office of Secretary of the Colony of New York in America.

His Majesty has likewise been pleased to grant to the Reverend and Honourable James Beauclerk, (commonly called Lord James Beauclerk) A. M. a Prebendary's Place in the Free Chapel of Windfor, void by the Death of Dr. Edward Jotes. And unto John Ewer, A. M. a Prebendary's Place in the said Chapel, void by the Death of Dr. Michael Stanhope. And likewise unto John Griffith; A. M. a Prebendary's Place in the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Canterbury, void by the Death of Dr. Edward Finch.
