Petersbourg, February 14, N. S.

UPON the Duke of Courland's receiving some Days ago Advice, that a Prussian Officer had entered his Territories, and taken away by force a Tall Man, and wounded the Man's Wife, who endeavoured to rescue him; his Highness sent immediately one of his Secretaries to Baron Mardefeldt, to desire him to inform the King his Master, that he insisted on having his Subject sent back, and Satisfaction given him for this Act of Violence. Prince Charles, the Duke of Courland's youngest Son, is at present ill of the Small-Pox, but in a fair Way of Recovery. General Botta arrived here the 10th Instant from Vienna with a Secretary of War.

Dresden, March 12. The Ministers here are at present entirely taken up with the Spanish Ambassadour, to regulate all things for the Marriage and Departure of the Princesses. We are informed here, that the Russians design to open the Campaign early, will begin with Bender and Choczim, and will march through a Part of Poland.

Whitehall, March 4, 1737-8.

Whereas it has been represented to his Majesty, That on Tuesday the 14th of February last, John Pendry, William Horry, Howel David, Noble, Benjamin Potherough, Edward Roberts, and William Mayo, with other Persons unknown, did cut down the Turnpike at Wilton upon Wye, in Herefordshire, and broke open the Shop of William Matherus, the Keeper of the said Turnpike, and took away, or destroyed all the Goods of the said Matherus: His Majesty, for the better Discovery of the Persons concerned in the said Crimes, who have since all absconded, and fled from Justice, is pleased to promise His Most Gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a further Encouragement, His Majesty is pleased to offer a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any one who shall make a Discovery of any of the Persons concerned in the said Facts, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.
