Vienna, March 12, N. S.

WE have Advice by Letters of the 24th of December, N. S. from Constantinople, which came by the Way of Venice, that the Preparations for War were carried on with the greatest Application, especially upon the Black Sea; That the Porte had given Orders to march as many Troops as possible from Asia; That the greatest Efforts imaginable would be tried to recover Oczakow, or at least to hinder the Muscovites from making any farther Progresses; and that it was rumour'd a Body of Turks would be commanded to enter through Bosnia into Carinthia.

Hague, March 25. N. S. The military Officers are order'd to repair forthwith to their respective Garrisons, to see that the Troops are kept to their Exercises and observe Discipline. The States General have pass'd a Resolution, which they declare shall have the Force of a general and perpetual Law, that all their military Officers who at the Time of their Admittance into Commission, make Profession of the Protestant Religion, and shall afterwards turn Papists or marry Wives that are Papists, shall ipso facto forfeit their Commissions, and be dismiss'd the Service. A Loan of a considerable Sum having been newly desired by the Court of Saxony, the Credit of that Court in these Provinces is such, that it was presently filled.

Whitehall, March 18.

His Majesty has been pleased to grant unto Samuel Shuckford, Master of Arts, the Prebend or Canonry in the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of Canterbury, void by the Death of Dr. William Egerton, late Prebendary there.
