Petersbourg, June 24.

L E T T E R S from Felt Marshal Munich dated the 7th Instant, relate, that the Russian Army was but then come to the River Ingul, where they found about 40 Janissaries, some of which they took Prisoners, by whom the Felt Marshal was informed, that two Seraskiers and 30000 Turks were at Bender, with 20000 Tartars, and that a Capachi Bashaw was arrived from Constantinople at Bender, with Orders that the Troops in that Place should march out on the Approach of the Russians, and give them Battle, to prevent their passing the River Dniester. The 17th Instant a dismal Fire happened at Wibourg in Finland, which in a very few Hours consumed all the Town to Ashes, except two Churches, but the Powder Magazine was not blown up, so the Fortifications remain entire. Yesterday being the young Princess of Courland's Birth-day, who then entered into the 12th Year of her Age, all the Foreign Ministers and Russian Nobility went in the Morning to make their Compliments to the Princess, and to the Duke and Dutchess.

Copenhagen, July 15, N. S. Their Danish Majesties having made a Progress to Wallde and Wardingsburg, are come back to the Palace of Rosenburg in this City, and will remove again in a Day or two to Fridericksbourg. During the Progress his Danish Majesty reviewed the Regiments of the Prince of Wirtemberg Oels, and Stevens Cavalry; and has been pleased to confer upon the said Prince the Command of the Horse Guard, vacant by the late Promotion of General Schulemburg. To Day Count Daneskiold entertains the Court on board a Vessel in this Road.

Whitehall, June 26, 1738.

Where is on the 6th of May last, about Nine of the Clock in the Evening, the Tyle-House of Thomas Colebrooke, on Clapham Common in the County of Suffex, was, as there is great Reason to apprehend, wilfully and maliciously set on Fire, and burnt down, whereby several Thousands of Tyles were spoiled, to his great Damage and Prejudice: His Majesty for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in so heinous a Crime, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any of them who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a farther Encouragement for the Discovery of such Offender or Offenders, Thomas Colebrooke does hereby promise to pay the Sum of Ten Pounds to any one of the said Offenders who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, May 20, 1738.

It having been represented to His Majesty, That a most notorious and wicked Practice has of late Years prevailed, and does now particularly prevail, to a very high Degree, in His Majesty's Forest, called New Forest, in the County of Southampton, for Persons unknown, not only to cut down Trees, and Part of Trees, fit for the Service of His Majesty's Navy, but likewise to steal and take away from the said Forest, Timber, after it has been squared into proper Lengths for that Service; and it being apprehended, that the Persons guilty of the said Theft are chiefly encouraged thereto by Persons in the Neighbourhood, who receive the same from them: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the said Offenders, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of them, who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. And as a farther Encouragement thereto, His Majesty is pleased to promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds to any Person or Persons, who shall discover any Person or Persons, that have stolen, or may hereafter steal, any Timber from the said Forest, as aforesaid, or that have received, or may hereafter receive, any such Timber, knowing the same to be stolen, so

(Price Two Pence.)
