Petersbourg, July 13.

ON the 11th Instant the Czarina with all her Court set out for Petershoff. On the 13th a Courier arrived here from Felt Marshal Lacy, with Letters dated the 30th of June, importing, that three Days before he arrived with his Army about 40 Versts from Perecop, where he found the Gniloie More so dry, that he passed the same with the greatest Part of his Army and Artillery, leaving the Remainder on the other Side, with all the Tents standing, that the Enemy might not perceive his Design; which succeeded so well, that he got into the Crimea without much Trouble, and took a little Fort the Tartars had raised near the Place he passed. Next Day he advanced to the Perecop, where the Russians raised two Batteries; and after firing and flinging Bombs into the Town and Castle of Or for 36 Hours, the Bashaw with his Garrison consisting of 2000 Janissaries and about 100 Tartars, surrendered the Place the 29th of June, and were made Prisoners of War. Just as the Turks were capitulating, the Tartar Cham approached with about 40000 Turks and Tartars, as if he designed to attack the Russians, but as soon as Felt Marshal Lacy with his Dragoons advanced to meet them, they retired with Precipitation, and the Bashaw immediately delivered up the Town and Castle to Colonel Lacy, the Felt Marshal's Son, whom he had sent to take Possession of it with 10 Companies of Grenadiers. Eighty Brass Cannon and Mortars were found in the Town. This great News was made known to the People of Petersbourg, Croonstadt, and Petershoff, by the firing of all the great Guns that are in those Places, as well as those of the six Russian Men of War commanded by Rear Admiral O Brian, that are cruizing in the Gulf of Finland in order to exercise the Seamen. Last Night a Courier arrived at Petershoff with Letters from Felt Marshal Munich, importing, that having passed the Bog, and the Kodina near its Fall into the Bog, he had encamped between those two Rivers: That on the 29th of last Month, a vast Number of Tartars and Spahis appeared, who the next Day attacked his Troops on all Sides; but after an Action which lasted five Hours he put them all to Flight. As the Felt Marshal's Letter was writ immediately after the Action, he could not tell how many Turks and Tartars were killed, but supposed there must have been a great Number. The Loss of the Russians was inconsiderable.

From the Imperial Camp at Lugos, July 25. Arriving at Caransebes the 20th Instant, we remained there the 21st and 22d, to give the Cavalry and the whole Army some Rest, which they had not had for some Time. On the 23d we marched to Csena, where in the Evening arrived an Officer of Hussars, with the News that 15000 Turks had returned to renew the Siege of Meadia; and it being impossible that Place should hold out, unless a strong Body of Troops could be at hand to support it, Orders had been left with the Governour Colonel Berenclau, in case the Turks should return, to capitulate, which he accordingly did, making the same Capitulation, and marching out with the same Honours as were granted to the Enemy when we took it. A Captain of Ingeniers, who was to have brought that Capitulation to Felt Marshal Count Konigsegg, and was accompanied by a Turk who was charged with a Letter to the said Felt Marshal, had the Misfortune to be killed on the Way by Robbers. On the 24th we marched to Lugosfell, from whence an Answer was returned to the Letter which the said Turk had brought from the Bashaw of Widdin, who commands their Army; and a Guard was sent with the Messenger to conduct him to their Camp, which is now said to be between Meadia and Caransebes, where they will have difficulty enough to subsist for want of Provisions and Forage. Two French Couriers have passed here on their Way from Constantinople to Vienna; they came hither with the forementioned Turk, and with the same Escorte that conducted him to our Camp. Since our coming hither, the Body of Troops which were were sent to us some time ago by Prince Lobkowitz, who commands in Transilvania, has been ordered back to him. To Day Count Pertusati, who was sent to Vienna with the News of the first Action at Cornia, returned hither: He had a Colonel's Commission, but in Consideration of that News, the Emperour has made him a Major General.

Vienna, Aug. 2, N. S. The Grand Duke of Tuscany arrived here on the 30th past in the Evening; he had had violent Fits of his Fever on the Road, but Yesterday and the Day before he had no Returns. The Imperial Army is removed from Lugos to Keve-rith and Sackesh, which Places are on the Right of the Temes not far from Temeswaer. The contagious Distemper is actually at Caransebes; 1500 Inhabitants have died of it at Temeswaer, which is but a little Place.

Admiralty Office, August 8, 1738.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the better Government of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice to all such Widows, whose Husbands died on or since the 30th of August, 1732, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford and Woolwich, and the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale, where they may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose: But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Esq; at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute some Relief to the Widows of such Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August, 1732, and whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, these are to give Notice of the same to all such Widows, that they may procure the proper Certificates and Affidavits, and send or bring them hither. And the Court of Assistants do hereby give Notice, that they will meet at this Office on Tuesday the 19th of September next, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, to receive the Claims of such Widows, as shall be qualified according to the said Rules and Orders.

Admiralty Office, August 5, 1738.

My Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are hereby pleased to give Notice, that Directions have been sent to the Lieutenants who are employed on or about the River of Thames, in procuring Men for His Majesty's Ships which are fitting out, not to impress the Masters of any small Boats, commonly called Peter Boats, employed on the said River, in catching Fish for the Supply of the City of London, provided the said Persons are actually Masters of the said Boats, and not Seamen.
