Francis Kelham, a little Man with a red Complexion, who keeps the Rose and Crown Ale-house in Bartholomew Close, till he absconded. They have both been frequently seen at Horse Races, Gaming-Tables, Hazard, and Cockfighting Matches. Whoever apprehends either of the said Persons, or any other Person concerned in these Practices, may apply themselves to Mr. Alston, in Surry-street in the Strand, or to Mr. North, near Fishmongers-Hall, in Thames street.

Admiralty Office, August 8, 1738.

His Majesty having been graciously pleased, by his Warrants under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the better Government of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice to all such Widows, whose Husbands died on or since the 30th of August, 1732, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth, and Plymouth, as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford and Woolwich, and the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal, and Kinsale, where they may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose: But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Esq; at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity intending to distribute some Relief to the Widows of such Sea Officers who died before the 30th of August, 1732, and whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, these are to give Notice of the same to all such Widows, that they may procure the proper Certificates and Affidavits, and send or bring them hither. And the Court of Assistants do hereby give Notice, that they will meet at this Office on Tuesday the 19th of September next, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, to receive the Claims of such Widows, as shall be qualified according to the said Rules and Orders.

Whitehall, August 15, 1738.

His Majesty has been graciously pleased, by Letters Patent under his Great Seal, to grant unto Isaac Wilkinson, of the Parish of Coulton, in the County of Lancashire, for the Term of Fourteen Years, the sole Use and Benefit of his Invention of a new Sort of cast metallick Boxes for the smoothing of Linmen, made either of Iron, Bell-Metal, Brass, or any other mixed Metal, which can be afforded at a cheaper Rate than those made of Bar Iron, and so durable, that they will in all Probability last more than One hundred Years, and being not subject to rust, the Linmen smoothed with these Boxes will last much longer than that with the other Boxes now in Use. And also of his Invention of a new Sort of Bellows for Forges or Furnaces, or any other Works made of Cast Metal, which are so contrived, that they will in all Probability last One hundred Years, with little or no Repair, and will blow a much stronger Blast, and will make more Iron, or any other Sort of Metal, with the same Quantity of Coals, and in less Time than the common ones; they are likewise safe from Fire, and receive no Detriment from the Water, and may stand in an Overflow of Water, whereas the Bellows in common Use, are rendered entirely unfit for Use by standing in the Water, and these being made in a cylindrical Form, take up but a small Space, and may be worked with the common Wheels without any Alteration; strictly forbidding all Persons whatsoever, to make, use, or put in Practice the said Inventions, or any Part thereof, or to counterfeit, imitate, or resemble the same, without the Licence of the said Isaac Wilkinson, in Writing, under his Hand and Seal first had and obtained in that Behalf.
